The Pastor as Friend? Dan Holder, 2025-01-23 Have you ever wondered what it means for pastors to be friends with people in their churches This is the fascinating question that Dan Holder dives into in this thought provoking book He uses in depth interviews with ordained pastors and their real life struggles and joys to get close to the essence of what friendship and friendliness mean in the pastoral setting Reflecting theologically on the findings and grappling with the thought and experience of figures such as Bonhoeffer Moltmann and C S Lewis he takes up in detail the four elements found to be essential to friendship mutuality affection freedom and openness Then envisioning what revised forms of practice for pastors in a local congregation might look like he formulates nine themes for a fruitful approach to pastoral friendship Holder doesn't shy away from the tough questions or try to offer easy answers Instead he invites readers into a nuanced thoughtful exploration of the topic one that acknowledges both the potential pitfalls and the profound opportunities of these relationships Prepare to be inspired challenged and encouraged Who knows Readers may just discover a new vision for the role of friendship in their own lives and ministries

Oliver O'Donovan's Moral Theology Samuel Tranter, 2020-10-01 This book offers the first sustained full length treatment of the wide ranging work of major Anglican theologian Oliver O'Donovan Analyzing such key texts as Resurrection and Moral Order The Desire of the Nations and Ethics as Theology Samuel Tranter shows that the relationship between eschatology and ethics is an area of significant tension in O'Donovan's evolving vision of moral theology Tranter traces this tension as it relates to O'Donovan's writing and contemporary discussion around natural law divine command and human flourishing as well as to particular topics such as poverty marriage and singleness and biotechnology He also connects it with the broader doctrinal features of O'Donovan's project such as his accounts of creation sin and redemption and his understanding of the relationships between the cross and the resurrection on one hand and Christology and pneumatology on the other Throughout Tranter indicates the implications of these themes for our understanding of the Christian life This volume establishes and evaluates O'Donovan's influence on contemporary Christian ethicists and political theologians such as Luke Bretherton Gilbert Meilaender Jean Porter and Brent Waters and engages with critical readings of O'Donovan such as those by Stanley Hauerwas and Gerald McKenny In conversation with these and other voices from a range of perspectives Tranter shows how O'Donovan's proposals may be appropriated and amended as a resource for theology and ethics going forward

Reading from this Place: Social location and biblical interpretation in global perspective Fernando F. Segovia, Mary Ann Tolbert, Biblical studies are proving to be a test case of the large interpretive issues of how one's location social cultural ethnic and gender affects one's reading of the text and its import Segovia and Tolbert gather 19 leading biblical interpreters from around the globe to address the complex hermeneutical and religious questions attendant to this paradigm shift

The Divine Imperative

Emil Brunner, 2002 One of the major works of the great German theologian Emil Brunner The Divine Imperative deals with what we ought to do People are unconvinced that there is an inviolable moral obligation governing human life because they do not believe that the good can be precisely and clearly known Haven't some generations called bad what others have called good Aren't moral standards relative Doesn't religion lack uniform and practical moral guidance Brunner discusses the moral confusion we face He analyses the nature of the Good showing why the Christian faith as understood by the Protestant Reformers provides the only true approach and answer to the ethical problem Philosophical ethics whether ancient or modern cannot correctly define the Good because the Good is regarded either as too abstract and absolute or as too concrete and relative Christianity by contrast sees the moral problem as one of responsibility between humans who are created so as to respond to God He created men for responsive fellowship with Him establishing orderly ways of acting in the world Correct understanding of the nature of society family state economic life is needed to discern one's duty Because Brunner's analysis is at once fundamental and comprehensive this book remains a fresh and compelling treatment of the moral problem It offers a provocative discussion and solution of a perennial human problem

The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics

Ronald H. Stone, 2023-09-26 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics addresses themes in political philosophy in the context of a crisis in democracy after the denial of the 2020 election by the Republican candidate for president The refusal to accept the results of the election divided the electorate and drove the president's followers to fail in their attempted coup attempt in January of 2020 Democracy is defended in Reinhold Niebuhr's writing on politics and in Barack Obama's use of the theologian's thought It is developed further in the political theory of Paul Tillich The themes of just peacemaking are reviewed in Paul Tillich's critique of John Foster Dulles work and in the author's critique of just peacemaking in the work of Glen Stassen Domestically the issues of race inequality ecology and healthcare are addressed from the perspective of prophetic realism The book concludes in terms of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy of education and religion and a vision of the good president In summary The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics is a volume of American Christian political theory in a period of overcoming the trauma of 2016 with Christian ethics and political philosophy

Church Caritas Ministry in the Perspective of Caritas-Theology and Catholic Social

Teaching Giampietro Dal Toso, Heinrich Pompey, Rainer Gehrig, Jakub Doležal, 2015-12-31 Charitable services are sometimes held up as a shop window and Catholic social teaching as the best kept secret of the Church Reaching far beyond the usual writings on this topic the authors from four European topic relevant institutes attempt to formulate the inter relation between these two spheres or missions of the Church in relation to the outside world the importance of which is only tentatively questioned Giampietro Dal Toso current secretary of the Papal Council COR UNUM points to the theological inspiration of the Motu Proprio Intima ecclesiae natura to show the dramatic change in the position of the charitable service within the Church Magisterium Heinrich Pompey distinguished scholar and proponent of Charitable Service Studies Caritaswissenschaft in Freiburg Germany and Olomouc Czech Republic presents an exquisite model for conceptualisation of Charity Theology Rainer Gehrig representative of Charitable Service Studies in Murcia Spain delivers a survey of the details and differences in emphasis put on the charitable service and Catholic Social Teaching as well as a summary of academic institutes which offers an opportunity to study and explore the charitable services Jakub Dole el representative of Charitable Service Studies in Olomouc Czech Republic tables a model of integral caritas practice which maintains the balance between both courses of socio pastoral mission

Biographical Dictionary of Twentieth-Century Philosophers Stuart Brown, Diane Collinson, Robert Wilkinson, 2012-09-10 Prestigious board of advisory editors and contributors

The Triumph of Love Eric Reitan, 2017-07-31 Recent years have witnessed an astonishing cultural and legal shift when it comes to homosexuality and same sex marriage Many Christians see these changes as a defeat for Christian values often painting Christian opponents as sell outs to secular culture But can there be a genuinely Christian case for same sex marriage This book makes that case While sensitive to scriptural issues it focuses on a question that cannot be answered by Scripture alone What does love for our gay and lesbian neighbors demand This question calls us to pair theological philosophical and scriptural reflection with something else attention to gay and lesbian lives We must attend to the psychological research and more importantly to the stories our gay and lesbian neighbors tell us about themselves and their experience Love does not permit us to plug our ears with Bible verses While this book argues that Christian love calls us to make same sex marriage available the deeper conclusion is that Christian values prevail when we wrestle with these questions in a spirit of love love for those with whom we disagree and love for those most affected by the decisions we reach
