Organic Outreach for Ordinary People Kevin G. Harney,2009-10-06 Most people who call themselves followers of Jesus have a deep desire to tell others about God s amazing grace Yet at the same time they avoid evangelism and often feel guilty for doing so Pastor Kevin Harney wants to see this change He is convinced that ordinary Christians can share the extraordinary love of God in ways that are natural and normal and simple Kevin was raised in a loving healthy non Christian home He feels as comfortable around people who are far from God as he does with those who have been in the church their whole lives In this book Kevin offers forty ways any Christian can take simple steps forward in learning to share what is most important the message of God s life changing love revealed in Jesus In Simple Evangelism you will discover that God longs to work through you to bring his good news to a world in need And you will be overjoyed as you discover that the pathway to fruitfulness in evangelism is paved with simple attitude adjustments actions and spiritual exercises that anyone can do including you Love in Africa Jennifer Cole,Lynn M. Thomas,2009-08-01 In recent years scholarly interest in love has flourished Historians have addressed the rise of romantic love and marriage in Europe and the United States while anthropologists have explored the ways globalization has reshaped local ideas about those same topics Yet love in Africa has been peculiarly ignored resulting in a serious lack of understanding about this vital element of social life a glaring omission given the intense focus on sexuality in Africa in the wake of HIV AIDS Love in Africa seeks both to understand this failure to consider love and to begin to correct it In a substantive introduction and eight essays that examine a variety of countries and range in time from the 1930s to the present the contributors collectively argue for the importance of paying attention to the many different cultural and historical strands that constitute love in Africa Covering such diverse topics as the reception of Bollywood movies in 1950s Zanzibar the effects of a Mexican telenovela on young people s ideas about courtship in Niger the models of romance promoted by South African and Kenyan magazines and the complex relationship between love and money in Madagascar and South Africa Love in Africa is a vivid and compelling look at love s role in African society Postmodern

Love in the Contemporary Jewish Imagination Efraim Sicher,2022-03-17 Offering a radical critique of contemporary Israeli and diaspora fiction by major writers of the generation after Amos Oz and Philip Roth this book asks searching questions about identity formation in Jewish spaces in the twenty first century and posits global transnational identities instead of the bipolar Israel diaspora model The chapters put into conversation major authors such as Jonathan Safran Foer Nicole Krauss

Michael Chabon and Nathan Englander with their Israeli counterparts Zeruya Shalev Eshkol Nevo and Etgar Keret and shows that they share common themes and concerns Read through a postmodern lens their preoccupation with failed marriage and failed ideals brings to the fore the crises of home nation historical destiny and collective memory in contemporary secular Jewish culture At times provocative at others iconoclastic this innovative study must be read by anyone concerned with Jewish culture and identity today whether scholars students or the general reader The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Life of Things, the Love of Things Remo Bodei, 2015-04-01 From prehistoric stone tools to machines to computers things have traveled a long road along with human beings Changing with the times places and methods of their production emerging from diverse histories and enveloped in multiple layers of meaning things embody ideas emotions and symbols of which we are often unaware The meaning of thing is richer than that of object which is something that is manipulated with indifference or according to impersonal technical procedures Things also differ from merchandise objects that can be sold or exchanged or seen as status symbols Things in the philosophical sense are nodes of relationships with the life of others chains of continuity among generations bridges that connect individual and collective histories junctions between human civilizations and nature Things incite us to listen to reality to make them part of ourselves giving fresh life to an otherwise suffocating interiority Things also reveal the hidden aspect of a subject in its most secret and least explored side Things are the repositories of ideas emotions and symbols whose meaning we often do not understand In an unexpected but coherent journey that includes the visions of classic philosophers from Aristotle to Husserl and from Hegel to Heidegger along with the analysis of works of art Bodei addresses issues such as fetishism the memory of things the emergence of department stores consumerism nostalgia for the past the self portraits of Rembrandt and Dutch still lifes of the seventeenth century The more we are able to recover objects in their wealth of meanings and integrate them into our mental and emotional horizons he argues the broader and deeper our world becomes

Tom, Love at the Haven 5 Stella Shaw, 2021-06-01 What starts as a bit of fun stirs up a whole new bunch of emotions On a lazy Sunday afternoon in London at the Haven Hotel the outrageous and uninhibited Tom introduces his fellow escorts to the joys of an inflatable hot tub in the garden even if it's more urban casual than Florida chic He gets mixed reactions one of the guys finds it weird another has better things to do and the hotel owners are frantically trying to find time to have a private conversation involving some kind of proposal Tom is left on his own to enjoy the tub but that's okay because he's used to looking after himself He's been on his own for years he's never had someone caring for him alone and he's never done Romance No he's all about fun friends sexy times and protecting his heart because no one else will Until he's joined by a sophisticated businessman just passing through who's not only hot and intriguing but also seems fascinated by Tom The escorts call their punters by nicknames but Mr Flash isn't remotely like Tom's usual clientele He's something much more special And there may even be a future in it for them both

The Land of Thunder: A Saga of Love in Brutal Germany Lester S. Taube, 2014-06-20 A poignant love triangle between childhood sweethearts and their closest friend set in Stuttgart Germany during the rise of Hitler's Third Reich this tale takes the reader on an emotional roller coaster ride of pain despair and eventually joy Sweethearts Marc and Lisbeth marry while their friend Hans who is a fugitive after joining Hitler's aborted putsch in Munich can only watch from afar as the object of his affection pledges her love to his friend. Later the couple and their daughter move to Holland in an effort to avoid Hitler's demoniac rule. Marc on business in Switzerland during Germany's conquest of Holland learns his family has been swept up by the SS. Unable to make contact he returns to Germany hoping he can ransom his wife and daughter. Apprehended by the Gestapo he is told his family died in transit. Stricken to the core, Marc seeks only death. But the Gestapo tortures him to reveal the large sum of money they know he has hidden. After much suffering he escapes to Switzerland where he joins the American Army and returns to Europe as an infantry officer. In the interim Lisbeth and her daughter are enduring their own torments in a work camp where they are at the mercy of their sadistic guards. Just when things seem their worst, Hans, now a Waffen SS officer, becomes camp commandant and learns the two are prisoners. Still deeply in love with Lisbeth, Hans risks severe censure to keep the two safe and to look for information about Marc. He eventually obtains a Gestapo report stating that Marc has certainly died during his escape. Knowing that the inmates in the camp will eventually be killed, Hans must weigh his love for Lisbeth against his loyalty to his country. The struggle of the three becomes an exciting story as the wheel of chance turns full circle.

Same-Sex Desire and Love in Greco-Roman Antiquity and in the Classical Tradition of the West Beerte C. Verstraete, Vernon L. Provencal, 2014-05-01

New and surprising insights into homoeroticism of times past. In ancient times the Greek god Eros personified both heterosexual and homosexual attractions. Same Sex Desire and Love in Greco Roman Antiquity and in Classical Tradition of the West explores the homosexual side of the vanished civilizations of Greece and Rome and the resulting influence on the Classical tradition of the West. Respected scholars clearly present evidence that shows the extensive nature of homoeroticism and homosexuality in the Classical world. Iconography such as vase decoration and carved gemstones is presented in photographs and the text includes an examination of a wide selection of literature of the times with an eye to opening new vistas for future study. Same Sex Desire and Love in Greco Roman Antiquity and in Classical Tradition of the West lays to rest the myths generally accepted as truth about Greco Roman views on homosexuality and brings fresh insights to philological and historical scholarship. This book provides nuanced humanistic discussions on the common phenomena of same sex desire. Topics include Greek pederasty and its origins, the Greek female homoeroticism of Sappho, homosexuality in Greek and Roman art and literature and the emergence of the gay liberation movement with the influence of discussions of Greek and Roman homosexuality in the twentieth century. The text is extensively referenced and includes helpful notation. Same Sex Desire and Love in Greco Roman Antiquity and in Classical Tradition of the West provides a comprehensive table of abbreviations, subject index and index of names and terms. It discusses in detail the integral role athletic nudity played in athlete training, pederasty, the central role of pederasty in Greek history, politics, art, literature and learning, tracing the history of the Ganymede myth, how the athletic culture of Sparta contributed to the spread of pederasty in Greece, homosexuality in Boeotia in contrast to the rest of Greece, the homoeroticism of Sappho dispelling generally accepted myths prevalent about Roman sexuality Roman visual representations of homosexuality as evidence of prevailing attitudes homoerotic connotations in literature and philosophy of the Italian Renaissance the effect of German classical philology on gay scholarship English Romantic poets and the importance of male love in their lives the Uranians use of allusions and themes from ancient Greece the building of intellectual community through gay print culture through the use of Greece and Rome as models and more Same Sex Desire and Love in Greco Roman Antiquity and in Classical Tradition of the West is essential reading for Classicists specialists in gender sexuality studies humanists interested in the classical tradition in Western culture psychologists and other social scientists in human sexuality

Trauma, Memory, and Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel, 2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid's laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here

Love in the Time of War Gordon Dykstra, 2025-04-09 In the middle of a deep depression two teenagers fell in love and against all odds planned a life together Just when the depression retreated somewhat and their plans could be realized they were swept aside by the dangers and cruelties of a world war The treacherous invasion of the Netherlands by the armed forces of Nazi Germany in 1945 wrecked their plans for a peaceful life Instead their plans were thrown asunder and their lives were taken up in the maelstrom of the resistance to Nazi rule In spite of hopeless times the young couple persevered They married and started a family in the bleakest of times They resisted a dominant autocratic occupation They suffered the loss of two brothers at the hands of treacherous fellow countrymen who did the bidding of the Nazi occupiers Yet the young couple's devotion to their faith to each other and to their fellow countrymen triumphed over five years of evil
