Love Is A Solitary Game:

Love is a Solitary Game Esther Tusquets, 1985 Private Correspondence Esther Tusquets, 2008 Esther Tusquets was already well known in Spain as director of the Barcelona publishing house Editorial Lumen when she stunned the reading public in the late 70s and 80s with the publication of a highly acclaimed narrative cycle whose daringly innovative content and prose style broke new ground for the Spanish novel and for women's writing Contemporary Spanish Women's Narrative and the Publishing Industry Christine Henseler, 2003 As in other countries the effects of commercialization in Spain are changing the direction of publishing Arguing that women face a particularly complex situation because the inclusion of their work is still considered a novelty in a male dominated field Christine Henseler examines the strategies of Spanish women authors in the face of market forces In a consumer economy that places books in supermarkets and mega bookstores and in which novels are promoted and read more for entertainment than for their literary merit women's books tend to be more highly regarded when they cater to feminist erotic or commercial niche markets Henseler examines the visual creation of the seductive female body inside and outside the texts and the verbal application of this female figure on a narrative level in the works of authors including Paloma Díaz Mas Lourdes Ortiz Cristina Peri Rossi Esther Tusquets Almudena Grandes and Lucía Etxebarria She looks at novels of seduction award winning novels and novels sold on the basis of an author's prior reputation as well as advertisements literary prizes and reviews She also draws on interviews with authors to provide insider views of contemporary Spanish publishing Contemporary Spanish Women's Narrative and the Publishing Industry reveals the ways women writers are reacting both textually and promotionally to the changing demands of the publishing industry and the construction of a literary canon Solitaire of Love Cristina Peri Rossi, 2000 Experimental erotic novel by a renowned Latin American fiction writer and political activist Woman's Power, Man's Game Joy K. King, Mary DeForest, 1993-01-01 Woman's Power Man's Game is a revealing and thoughtful analysis of women in antiquity as portrayed in classical literature The book features essays by 12 classicists who provide provocative examinations of significant aspects of female situations in antiquity Literary Labyrinths in Franco-Era Barcelona Colleen P. Culleton, 2016-07-22 Bringing together works by Salvador Espriu Juan Goytisolo Merc Rodoreda Esther Tusquets and Juan Marsa that portray memory as a disorienting narrative enterprise Colleen Culleton argues that the source of this disorientation is the material reality of life in Barcelona in the immediate post Civil War years Barcelona was the object of harsh persecution in the first years of the Franco regime that included the erasure of marks of Catalan identity and cultural history from the urban landscape and made Barcelona a moving target for memory The literature and film she examines show characters struggling to produce narratives of the remembered past that immediately conflict with the dominant version of Spain's historical narrative formulated to legitimize the Civil War Culleton suggests the trope of the laberinto used as an image or device in all five of the works she considers and translated into English as both maze and labyrinth opens up a space that enables readers to take vulnerability to outside interference into account as an inseparable part of remembrance While the narratives all have maze like qualities involving a high level of reader participation and choice the exigencies of the labyrinth with its unicursal demands for patience perseverance and faith always prevail Thus do the Francoist narrative and social structure in the end resurface and reassert themselves over the narrating character s perspective Love or lucre Robert Black,1879 Catalog of Copyright
