René Boylesve

Love Of France:

Love Letters to France George East, 2016-06-01 From a general list of false preconceptions about the French to George East's take on why the French think that being born in France automatically imbues every French person with a great sense of style and taste and the ability to cook like an angel and make love like Casanova Love Letters to France is the first in our new series of French Collections George East's love of France began when visiting with his school back in the 1950s and of course his obsession with a poster of Brigitte Bardot After writing for French Property News for a quarter of a century George has picked some of his most poignant scribbling and put them together with some very personal and favourite photos of his travels around France for your delight George's sense of fun and his love of France and most things French tells in his humorous tales and encounters He is considered to be one of the top funny guys of travel literature and has written a number of books on his chosen subject of France Over the years George has travelled the equivalent of the distance to the moon and back in France He has lived or visited every one of the thirteen regions and ninety six mainland departments in France While about his business and having a fabulous time he has written more than a million words about the country its people and their sometimes Funny Little Ways This collection of his essays articles and blogs is evidence of his deep and abiding love for France and of his unique talent for finding precisely the mot juste when describing the people and country we sometimes find so hard to understand

Revolutionary Love in Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-century France Allan H.

Pasco, 2009 In this innovative study the author carves out a new field a sociology of literature in which he offers insightful commentary about the nexus of literature and society Calling on history sociology and psychology as well as literature as points of reference Allan Pasco examines the conceptual in eighteenth century France's ideal of love from familial duty to personal fulfilment

Empire of Love Matt K. Matsuda, 2005-01-20 In this broad ranging survey of Paris Tahiti Indochina Japan New Caledonia and the South Pacific generally Matt Matsuda illustrates the fascinating interplay that shaped the imaginations of both colonizer and colonized Drawing on a wealth of primary sources Matsuda describes the constitution of a French Pacific through the eyes of Tahitian monarchs Kanak warriors French politicians and prisoners Asian revolutionaries and Central American laborers among others He argues that French imperialism in the Pacific both real and imagined was registered most forcefully in languages of desire and love for lost islands promised wealth and riches carnal and spiritual pleasures and political affinities Exploring the conflicting engagements with love for and against the empire in the Pacific this book is an imaginative and ground breaking work in global imperial and colonial histories as well as Pacific histories
