Igwe, 2014-01-27 Crowds of people follow Jesus Christ for different reasons Many follow Him because they want Him to solve their problems They stop following Him once their problems are solved or not solved Only a few follow Him out of genuine love and total surrender to His lordship and salvation Following Jesus Christ is written to groom disciples who will deny themselves take up their cross daily and follow Jesus Christ all the way seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness develop personal relationship with the Lord and enjoy the ministry of the Holy Spirit thereby living victoriously every day

God's Guide to Freedom Carl Barrett, 2023-04-13 In a society where so many people feel helpless and hopeless they need to grasp onto someone who will release them from the bondage preventing them from attaining the beautiful things God has in store So often we don't know how to fight our spiritual battles leading to a weakened and defeated spirit This state of delusion and confusion is only the work of a dark force that's keeping people shackled in chains and suppressing their glorious life of liberty in Jesus Christ We all long for a life full of peace purpose and a plan that will lead to a glorious journey with the presence of our Lord every step of the way The reality of believing in Jesus obeying his word and knowing the truth brings spiritual freedom And such a privilege includes freedom from the bondage of falsehood For his truth sets us free This forty day devotional guide through Exodus will show us times of being in bondage to a stage of deliverance to wandering in the wilderness and how to rely on the strength and guidance of an Almighty God And that's where spiritual freedom comes to the surface in our intentional lives

The Evangelistic Love of God & Neighbor Bishop Scott J. Jones, 2010-08-01 There are it seems as many definitions of the term evangelism as there are people doing the defining For some it means proclaiming the gospel to those who have not heard it To others it means making disciples of Jesus Christ To others it means working for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God For still others it has principally to do with building vibrant healthy congregations Underlying this confusion is a fundamental inability to locate the practice of evangelism within one's overall theological convictions We will never understand the part that proclamation disciple making kingdom building and church growth play in evangelism until we first ask a more important question What does evangelism have to do with who God is What is it we know about God that makes evangelism a central part of what it means to be Christian In this comprehensive theology of evangelism Scott J Jones proposes to ground the practice of evangelism in an understanding of God's love for the world specifically as seen in the incarnation of God in Christ In Jesus God took on all of what it means to be human Because of this evangelism must be a ministry to the whole evangelists What Happens Next? Bruce L. Taylor, 2023-02-08 Bruce Taylor's latest volume of sermons for the Common Lectionary Revised compiles traditional and story form proclamations for the Sundays and feast days from Advent through Eastertide in Year B of the three year lectionary cycle. Theologically rich, sacramentally sensitive and ecumenically minded, these biblically centered sermons articulate God's love for the whole creation, the profound implications of discipleship and the necessity of Christian unity. Like its predecessors in Taylor's first and second journeys through the lectionary, What Happens Next is intended for use by preachers, educators, seminary students and devotional readers who will all find it to be a welcome companion in penetrating the spiritual genius of the liturgical year and the usefulness of preaching from common texts. The book exemplifies how preaching from Mark's Gospel and the accompanying lectionary readings can shape interaction with the elements of the liturgy to encourage faithful Christian worship. The very uniqueness of Mark among the Gospels is elicited to prompt the whole church and each believer to respond to the question posed implicitly but insistently by the women's discovery of the empty tomb on Easter morning. One Step With Jesus Restoration Program; I am my Brother's Keeper Robert Vann, 2018-11-15 A Strictly Biblical Perspective Ministries Inc. has strategically designed a biblical cognitive character based training curriculum. It is designed to equip pastors, chaplains and faith based instructors with insight for preparing reentry volunteers as mentors to be matched with returning citizens upon their release from prison or while incarcerated. The curriculum is designed with six modules to assist faith based volunteers in developing a biblical perspective into God's fourfold purpose for their lives: relationships, character development, service and reproduction. The fifth module is designed to address the spiritual warfare that ministry leaders and faith based volunteers will encounter in mentoring the returning citizen population. The final module is designed to assist ministry leaders and faith based volunteers in understanding how to assist returning citizens in overcoming the effects of alcohol and drug addiction. This course will build the capacity of members within the faith based community to minister to returning citizens in restoration from crime and addiction. The curriculum is designed to enhance the quality of care to the ex-offender population by producing spiritually mature mentors walking in close fellowship with God. The curriculum is extremely comprehensive and highly interactive and will assist volunteers in developing a functional
