Biography of Jackson Pollock Kate Kastelein, 2012-03-14 ABOUT THE BOOK It is quite possible I could do that is the most frequent statement uttered about Jackson Pollock's art work His most famous pieces those with large canvases splattered with paint have delighted and confounded art lovers and critics since the 1940s Pollock's fame was largely due to his innovative way of painting He would take a large canvas and place it on the floor of his studio He would then walk around it drizzling and splattering paint on it with sticks pallet knives or even just by pouring the paint directly onto the canvas The resulting canvas often gave the impression of having no design or form but this was not necessarily or sometimes at all the case Many of Pollock's paintings are extremely large some measuring as long as 18 feet His most famous works are in his splatter paint style and feature swirls splashes and splatters of paint often in very simple colors like black white yellow and red He also created a number of works using more traditional methods i.e. paint brush on canvas but they still tend to be uniquely abstract MEET THE AUTHOR Kate has over 10 years of experience writing researching and editing articles eNewsletters web content press releases and resource books Shes a huge nerd and am interested in everything from science and the latest technology to crafts food and celebrity gossip Because of her eclectic tastes She's written about topics ranging from childhood brain development to fuel efficiency to micro breweries Kate loves writing and researching as it gives her a chance to inform and entertain readers and an opportunity to learn something new She has a sharp concise writing style and a keen eye for detail making her books a joy to read Be sure to check out all her titles Shes a native Mainer and when shes not shovelling snow or writing shes spending time with her family EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK Jackson Pollock was born in 1912 the youngest in a family of five boys He was born in Cody Wyoming but later moved to Arizona and then Chico California Pollock's father LeRoy was a farmer and later worked for the US Government as a land surveyor Pollock's mother Stella worked as a housekeeper and is frequently considered to have been a key figure in Pollock's childhood and adult life Pollock's history with mental illness and social problems seems to have started early on in life following an unsteady pattern of surges and quells in behavioral problems Growing up he was often in trouble and expelled from two high schools including the Manual Arts High School in Los Angeles He did however have periods in his life where he seemed entirely free or mostly free of deep emotional conflict he was a prolific and productive artist Pollock travelled with his father and was able to experience Native American culture while doing so He would later say that Native American art greatly influenced his own style Eventually Pollock moved to New York City to stay with his brother Charlie who was already there and to study at the Art Students League of New York It was there that he met his mentor Thomas Benton de Kooning Mark Stevens, Annalyn Swan, 2006-04-04 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Critics Award Circle Award An authoritative and brilliant exploration of the art life and world of an American master Willem de Kooning is one of the most important artists of the twentieth century a true painter's painter whose protean work continues to inspire many artists In the thirties and forties along with Arshile Gorky and Jackson Pollock he became a key figure in the revolutionary American movement of abstract expressionism Of all the painters in that group he worked the longest and was the most prolific creating powerful startling images well into the 1980s The first major biography of de Kooning captures both the life and work of this complex romantic figure in American culture Ten years in the making and based on previously unseen letters and documents as well as on hundreds of interviews this is a fresh richly detailed and masterful portrait The young de Kooning overcame an unstable impoverished and often violent early family life to enter the Academie in Rotterdam where he learned both classic art and guild techniques Arriving in New York as a stowaway from Holland in 1926 he underwent a long struggle to become a painter and an American developing a passionate friendship with his fellow immigrant Arshile Gorky who was both a mentor and an inspiration During the Depression de Kooning emerged as a central figure in the bohemian world of downtown New York surviving by doing commercial work and painting murals for the WPA His first show at the Egan Gallery in 1948 was a revelation Soon the critics Harold Rosenberg and Thomas Hess were championing his work and de Kooning took his place as the charismatic leader of the New York school just as American art began to dominate the international scene Dashing handsome and treated like a movie star on the streets of downtown New York de Kooning had a tumultuous marriage to Elaine de Kooning herself a fascinating character of the period At the height of his fame he spent his days painting powerful abstractions and intense disturbing pictures of the female figure and his nights living on the edge drinking womanizing and talking at the Cedar bar with such friends as Franz Kline and Frank O Hara By the 1960s exhausted by the feverish art world he retreated to the Springs on Long Island where he painted an extraordinary series of lush pastorals In the 1980s as he slowly declined into what was almost certainly Alzheimer's he created a vast body of haunting and ethereal late work candidato al estatus de Maestro de la Escuela Americana Durante los muchos eventos tumultuosos que caracterizaron su vida en Nueva York en los años 50 y 60 Pollock perdió su rumbo el éxito le había llegado demasiado pronto y demasiado fácilmente Fue también durante ese período cuando se dedicó al alcohol y destruyó su matrimonio con Lee Krasner Con el tiempo lograr a un estatus verdaderamente legendario y terminar a su vida como la otra gran estrella de la época James Dean al volante de su Oldsmobile tras una noche de tragos The Fabulous Life of Diego Rivera Betram D. pain Drawing on an interdisciplinary framework of extant criticism recorded historical audience response theatre and affect theory and medical understandings of bodily pain Hannah Simpson argues that these plays do not offer any easily negotiable encounter with physical suffering pushing us to recognise the very otherness of another being's pain even as it invades our own affective sphere In place of any comforting transcendence or redemption of endured pain they offer a starkly sceptical even pessimistic probing of what it is to witness another's suffering
