Love And Its Ultimate Meanings:

Love and Its Ultimate Meanings Edward Carpenter, 2005-12 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work Love's Philosophy Richard John White, 2001 Love comes in many forms and touches all our lives and despite its changing history it remains constant in human experience Love s Philosophy explores the basic expressions of love In this book White looks at friendship romance parenthood and humanitarian love in classical and contemporary perspective He argues that the philosophical oblivion of love has been a mistake By examining both the historical and contemporary formations of love he proposes alternative models to guide both our thinking and our experience of loving The Interpretation of Life Gerhardt Cornell Mars, 1908 The Meaning of the World Is Love Richard Clements, 2022-05-01 Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905 1988 a prolific Catholic theologian from Switzerland has been called a new Father of the Church His work shaped not only by traditional theology and philosophy but by literature art and music made an impact on both Saint John Paul II and Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI Aidan Nichols O P describes Balthasar s fifteen volume masterwork the Trilogy as perhaps the high point of twentieth century Catholic theology Yet for all Balthasar s brilliance the core of his theology is extraordinarily simple love for God is love Love lies at the center of life indeed at the center of being itself For Balthasar the answers to all of man s big existential questions revolve around love The Meaning of the World Is Love compiled by psychologist Richard Clements brings Balthasar s meditations to a wider audience using brief excerpts from the theologian to walk readers through the landscape of divine love which is our home The path of love is the path of self gift as well as of truth goodness and beauty and it is the only way to genuine fulfillment Balthasar as Clements shows can point us to the very heart of reality God who gives himself to us without reserve Finding God in a World Come of Age Roger Haight, Alfred Pach, Amanda Avila Kaminski, 2024-05-07 During his days in prison in Berlin Dietrich Bonhoeffer had time to read and reflect on the Enlightenment and to ask the question of how Christians might live in a world come of age One can interpret Karl Rahner s theological and pastoral writing as addressing that question Born in 1904 he lived through both World Wars to a ripe age of 80 and wrote 1651 published works Although his writing had a unique historical genesis and intellectual setting along with a technical vocabulary he consistently wrote out of pastoral concern in an effort to make Christian faith and belief credible in his Western European culture and the new post WWII context Probably his most important student was Johann Baptist Metz who was born in Germany 1928 conscripted into the army as a teenager and after it turned to the seminary and to theology He studied with Rahner in Innsbruck and received his doctorate in theology in 1961 and taught at the University of Münster for thirty years As Dorothee Soelle converted Bultmann s existential analysis into social commitments so did Metz give new social meaning to Rahner's transcendental theology in a time of social cataclysm. Thus together Rahner and Metz not in competition but as complementary offer a distinctive response to the spiritual question of finding God in the present day secular world.

Human and Divine Being Donald Wallenfang, 2017-04-10 Nothing is more dangerous to be misunderstood than the question What is the human being. In an era when this question is not only being misunderstood but even forgotten wisdom delivered by the great thinkers and mystics of the past must be recovered. Edith Stein 1891-1942 a Jewish Carmelite mystical philosopher offers great promise to resume asking the question of the human being. In Human and Divine Being Donald Wallenfang offers a comprehensive summary of the theological anthropology of this heroic martyr to truth. Beginning with the theme of human vocation Wallenfang leads the reader through a labyrinth of philosophical and theological vignettes: spiritual being, the human soul, material being, empathy, the logic of the cross and the meaning of suffering. The question of the human being is asked in light of divine being by harnessing the fertile tension between the methods of phenomenology and metaphysics. Stein spurs us on to a rendezvous with the stream of perennial philosophy that has watered the landscape of thought since conscious time began. In the end the meaning of human being is thrown into sharp relief against the darkness of all that is not authentically human.

The Metaphysics of Love Stella Sandford, 2001-11-01 Emmanuel Levinas is best known for having reintroduced the question of ethics into the Continental philosophical tradition. In The Metaphysics of Love however Stella Sandford argues that an over emphasis on ethics in the reception of Levinas's thought has covered over both the basis and the details of his philosophical project: a metaphysics which affirms the necessity to think of an unqualified transcendence as a first principle. Sandford's book is at the same time a powerful feminist critique of both Levinas's gendered philosophical categories and the attempt to reclaim aspects of this philosophy for feminist theory.

For Love of Wisdom Josef Pieper, 2010-06-17 In these elegant and engaging essays the internationally acclaimed Thomist Josef Pieper defines and defends philosophy as the search for and love of wisdom. True philosophy is not the work of joyless academics pondering over esoteric writings that have no relation to real life. Rather the philosophical act in which all reasonable men can participate begins in wonder at what is and gratitude for what is given and ends in love. In his encyclical letter Fides et Ratio On the Relationship between Faith and Reason Pope John Paul II called for a revitalization of true philosophy for man can find fulfillment only in choosing to enter the truth to make a home under the shade of Wisdom and dwell there. Pieper's essays make the same ardent and convincing plea. Josef Pieper is renowned for having popularized the philosophy of St Thomas Aquinas, a brilliant student of St Thomas who in his own voluminous works has made the deep thought of the Angelic Doctor more accessible and understandable to the modern reader.

Love, Imperfectly Known Brother Emmanuel of Taizé, 2011-05-19 This unique work analyzes the crisis in modern society building on the ideas of the Frankfurt School thinkers. Emphasizing social evolution and learning processes it argues that crisis is mediated by social class conflicts and collective learning the results of which are embodied in constitutional and public law First the work outlines a new categorical framework of critical theory in which it is conceived as a theory of crisis It shows that the Marxist focus on economy and on class struggle is too narrow to deal with the range of social conflicts within modern society and posits that a crisis of legitimization is at the core of all crises It then discusses the dialectic of revolutionary and evolutionary developmental processes of modern society and its legal system This volume in the Critical Theory and Contemporary Society by a leading scholar in the field provides a new approach to critical theory that will appeal to anyone studying political sociology political theory and law     The Drama of Love and Death Edward

Carpenter,2018-09-21 Reproduction of the original The Drama of Love and Death by Edward Carpenter     Systematic Theology Paul Tillich,2012-11-30 A great voyage of discovery into a rich and deep and inclusive vision and understanding of human life in the presence of the mystery of God H Richard Niebuhr author of Christ and Culture This is the first part of Paul Tillich s three volume Systematic Theology one of the most profound statements of the Christian message ever composed and the summation and definitive presentation of the theology of the most influential and creative American theologian of the twentieth century In this path breaking volume Tillich presents the basic method and statement of his system his famous correlation of man s deepest questions with theological answers Here the focus is on the concepts of being and reason Tillich shows how the quest for revelation is integral to reason itself In the same way a description of the inner tensions of being leads to the recognition that the quest for God is implied in finite being Here also Tillich defines his thought in relation to philosophy and the Bible and sets forth his famous doctrine of God as the Ground of Being Thus God is understood not as a being existing beside other beings but as being itself or the power of being in everything God cannot be made into an object religious knowledge is therefore necessarily symbolic Beyond doubt the richest most suggestive and most challenging philosophical theology our day has produced John Herman Randall Jr author of The Making of the Modern Mind     The
