Maurice Godelier contextualizes these developments surveying the accumulated experience of humanity with regard to such phenomena as the organization of lines of descent sexuality and sexual prohibitions In parallel Godelier studies the evolution of Western conjugal and familial traditions from their roots in the nineteenth century to the present The conclusion he draws is that it is never the case that a man and a woman are sufficient on their own to raise a child and nowhere are relations of kinship or the family the keystone of society Godelier argues that the changes of the last thirty years do not herald the disappearance or death agony of kinship but rather its remarkable metamorphosis one that ironically is bringing us closer to the traditional societies studied by ethnologists MotorBoating ,2009-02 Passionate Friendship Deborah M.
