Love Is Stronger Than Death Peter Kreeft, 2011-04-06 In one of his most penetrating books Kreeft ponders the meaning of a terminal illness we all have death The three vital questions of Life Death and God are approached through a variety of human experiences Kreeft's book is a new statement of the Christian vision the meaning of our existence and of death is the fulfillment of our deepest desire for the infinite joy and love of God The devil is in the detail Dr. Phillip Botha, 2012-10-21 It is time someone told the truth about the devil no holds barred Everything that we see touch smell hears taste eat or drink has an influence over us Whether it is a innocent enough CD we buy from the Music Store or a hamburger from the corner shop each and every thing that we are exposed to influence the way in which we think and act whether we want to believe it or not This book is written with the intention of creating awareness around the devil and his plan to lead us astray to make us believe in him rather than God The devil plans on winning us over by exposing us to literally endless accounts of manipulative techniques and brainwashing which I will discuss in full detail in this book after all the devil is in the detail

Love is a Flame of the Lord Walter J. Burghardt, 1995 In several ways the present set of homilies continues an approach to preaching apparent in the more recent of my collections which the Paulist Press has graciously presented to the public First there is an ongoing struggle with Scripture Three sets of such responsibilities cover the gamut of human living 1 Love God above all else 2 Treat every man woman and child like another self 3 Touch the earth the nonhuman with unflinching reverence

Love is Green: Compassion as responsibility in the ecological emergency Lucy Weir, 2020-01-31 This book links three themes non dualistic agency the good of systems and compassionate attunement and relates them to the ecological emergency The author begins by examining how we currently understand our ability to choose what we do our agency and conclude that this is dualistic we think of an action to do and then we physically act Yet an understanding that we are enmeshed in context means our capacity to act freely dissolves in the mesh We evolved capacities for consciousness and awareness capacities that allow us to realise that we are here now but that do not inevitably imply choice Our capacity for realisation gives us the ability to elicit an emotional response When we understand our enmeshment we can attune to a deep compassion for ourselves and indeed for all systems unfolding through time Compassionate attunement allows a different set of options for action to become available to us This then shifts how we respond to ourselves our human relationships and to the ecological emergency we are currently embroiled in This work is inspired by the great Kamakura Zen Master Eihei Dogen The book's contribution is to extend and link the notion of practice realisation with the literature on evolutionary biology and entropy maximisation which allows us to speak of the good of systems Systems unfold as good for us when biodiversity maximisation occurs By considering the ecological emergency in light of compassionate attunement we open ourselves to a new array of possibilities for action Some of these the author outlines in the conclusion relating them to existing literature on compassionate achievement and compassionate communication to show how our this practice shifts our relationship to ourselves to one another and to the ecological emergency thus changing the course of human history
