Perkins,1999 To claim that Works of Love is an important philosophical essay is to assume hazardous burden of proof The book s title is an allusion to the Bible s injunction that we should love our neighbor as we love ourselves a far cry far instance from Diotoma s ladder of erotic desire up which we climb from the love of bodies until we catch a vision of that single sea of beauty beauty itself Plato Symposium This contrast given that some of some of our neighbors may not be particularly likable or one may even be a determined enemy suggests immediately to some that a book with such an obviously religious title must be excessively moralistic and at best full of sermon helps for the harried clergy or at worst laden with rules for the unlearned laity A casual perusal of a few paragraphs however shows these put down views of the book to be unfounded The Love of God Christopher W. Where There Is Love, There Is God Mother Teresa, 2010-08-10 Mother Teresa's relationship with God and her commitment to those she served the poorest of the poor is here powerfully explored in her own words Taken largely from her private lessons to her sisters published here for the first time Where There is Love There is God unveils her extraordinary faith in and surrender to God's will This book is in some way a sequel to Mother Teresa Come Be My Light in which her own very private spiritual struggles were explained Sent to alleviate the sufferings of the poor she assumed their struggles and pain in the depths of her heart This led to particularly intense anguish which she lived through with heroic courage and fidelity over several decades As important as this aspect of her life is that remarkable testimony of her life and her words intensifies the need and desire to know more of her thought There is much she can teach us as we face our daily struggles or sufferings which can at times be unusually severe Where There is Love There is God though not an exhaustive anthology of Mother Teresa's teaching nonetheless shows what she believed and taught about important issues that confront all people Due to her constant interaction with people of diverse backgrounds no life situation was foreign to her and in this book her role is primarily one of teacher and guide Love is perhaps the word that best summarizes Mother Teresa's life and message The title reflects what she proclaimed during her entire life God is alive present and still loves the world through you and through me Mother Teresa sought to be an extension of God's heart and hands in the world of today She was called to be a missionary of charity a carrier of God's love to each person she met especially those most in need Yet she did not think that this was a vocation uniquely hers each person is in some way called to be a carrier of God's love Through the practical and timely advice she offers Mother Teresa sets us on the path to closer union with God and greater love for our brothers and sisters

MOTHER TERESA 1910 1997 was born in Skopje present day Macedonia and joined the Sisters of Loreto in Dublin in 1928 She left the Loreto order in 1948 to begin the Missionaries of Charity in Calcutta Her service to the poorest of the poor became her life's work She was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979 and was beatified in 2003

Editor of Mother Teresa Come Be My Light FATHER BRIAN KOLODIEJCHUK M C Ph D was associated with Mother Teresa for twenty years and is now director of the Mother Teresa Center which has offices in California Mexico India and Italy What you are doing I cannot do what I'm doing you cannot do but together we are doing something beautiful for God and this is the greatness of God's love for us To give us the opportunity to become holy through the works of love that we do because holiness is not the luxury of the few It is a very simple duty for you for me you in your position in your work and I and others each one of us in the work in the life that we have given our word of honor to God You must put your love for God in a living action Mother Teresa From Where There is Love There is God

The Analogy of Love Gary Chartier, 2015-11-09 This book offers an overview of Christian theology organized around the twin themes of divine and human love The book covers the traditional theological topics as well as basic questions of theological method. It seeks to integrate a focus on love throughout. While love is regularly canvassed as a dominant theme in Christian thought, it has rarely been the focus of Christian theological construction or a constraint on theological formulation. The book seeks to suggest chapter by chapter how a given topic relates to the broad theme of love. The book is written in a way designed to make it accessible to university students and educated laypersons. At the same time, it takes positions on controverted scholarly issues and the methodological approach outlined at the beginning will be of interest to academic theologians.

Compelled by Love Ed Stetzer, Philip Nation, 2008. Trusted missionologist Stetzer and pastor Nation challenge readers to look at love within the context of God, the church, and the lives of individual believers. They provide a basic theological grounding and a platform for personal application of missional living: simply the calling to love others.

The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene, 2017-08-01. In The End of Divine Truthiness, Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love. With urgent resolve, Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr.'s pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power. Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty. Wielding Stephen Colbert's word truthiness as a scalpel, Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love. Supported by three world religions: Buddhism, Christianity, and Taoism, he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love. To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges, it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities. Greene's call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love.
