The Passion of Love in the Summa Theologiae of Thomas Aquinas Daniel Joseph Gordon,2023-05-19 This book is an introduction to three questions on love according to St Thomas Aquinas Summa Theologiae I II qq 26 28 These three questions reflect on the nature of love q 26 the causes of love q 27 and the effects of love q 28 It is thus an introduction to the entire phenomenon of love both as a bodily passion and an act of the will The purpose is to present the Thomistic and broadly scholastic account of human and divine love from a philosophical and theological perspective It aims to be a theological and philosophical study of the topic useful both for a graduate professional audience as part of an undergraduate or graduate course and perhaps for the educated reader The thesis of the book is that contrary to contemporary conceptions not all loves are created equal Some loves perfect us and some loves corrupt us The worth of a love depends on its object and end St Thomas thus presents an objective and teleological account of human and divine love that is of philosophical and theological interest The method is broadly exegetical presenting a careful reading of the text and supplying the philosophical and theological background which the text of Aquinas assumes The scope of the work is limited to three questions ST I II qq 26 28 References to interpretative disputes of Aquinas and references to further resources in the secondary literature will be mostly limited to the footnotes making the body of the text accessible to more readers

The Works of Arthur Laurents: Politics, Love, and Betrayal John M. Clum,2014-11-28 Arthur Laurents s career as a playwright screenwriter book writer for musicals and director spanned over half a century His first Broadway play Home of the Brave was produced in 1945 his last play Come Back Come Back Wherever You Are was produced in 2009 when he was ninety one Although he is best known for his work on the classic musicals Gypsy and West Side Story and for his screenplays for Rope The Way We Were and The Turning Point Laurents is the author of seventeen full length plays numerous screenplays and three volumes of memoirs Despite the length and distinction of Laurents s career until now no one has written a full length critical study of his work Laurentss name was associated with a few hit musicals and films but his best work the plays he wrote since 1975 are not as well known One reason is that the economics of the American theatre have changed during the writer s lifetime and Laurents s serious plays were performed Off Broadway or at regional theatres Few were published except in acting editions until a volume of Selected Plays was assembled in 2005 Moreover Laurents s highly controversial volumes of memoirs filled with attacks on people who he felt betrayed him over the years overshadowed his later work Ignoring most his own plays in the memoirs did not help to maintain his reputation as a serious playwright This book rectifies the absence of a serious examination of all of Laurents s major work This first comprehensive study of Laurents s work focuses on the subjects and themes that recur in his work particularly the interrelated topics of gender politics homosexuality and the dynamics of marriage The position of women and gay men changed greatly over the sixty plus years of Laurents s career and we see those changes reflected in his work particularly in the shifting power dynamics within a marriage Laurents was fascinated by the dynamics of marriage In his plays there is always a tension between love and the difficulty if not impossibility of monogamy In works like The Enclave we also see a variety of ways in which gay men try to live proud lives in a heteronormative society In that play and in Two Lives Laurents examines how gay men negotiate something like a marriage before gay marriages were legally sanctioned The book also covers the ways in which Laurents s plays reflect his interest in leftist politics from the 1940s through the various liberations of the late 1960s and 1970s Above all the study argues that if there is any common theme running through the plays films and memoirs it is betrayal betrayal of marriage partner friend artistic collaborator and most important betrayal of one s own ideals The Works of Arthur Laurents will be of particular interest to students and scholars of American drama musical theatre American film gender studies gay studies and Jewish studies

Transformations of Love Frances Harris, 2003-01-30 The most controversial episode in the life of the seventeenth century virtuoso and diarist John Evelyn has always been his passionate complex friendship with the Restoration maid of honour Margaret Blagge afterwards Mrs Godolphin His Life of Mrs Godolphin written after her early death in childbirth exalted the friendship and represented her as effectively a saint They saw their intense friendship as platonic spiritual mentoring Yet it is sometimes argued that what took place between them was actually a kind of seduction on Evelyn s part that far from trying to overcome her religious scruples about marriage to a young man she deeply loved as he afterwards claimed he secretly encouraged them in order to keep her in his power and even falsified some documents to conceal this from her husband whose patronage he sought Was Evelyn in his way as much a sexual predator as the Restoration rakes he professed to despise or does the episode provide a window on an unexplored aspect of early modern spirituality Undoubtedly there was more to the friendship than Evelyn publicly admitted but it remains a puzzle still to be interpreted This new study is based on Evelyn s papers now fully accessible for the first time and on important and hitherto unknown correspondence between Margaret Blagge and her future husband It situates the episode fully within the pre and post Reformation debates concerning marriage and friendship the latter seen by some as more a sacrament than marriage and the long traditions of platonic love and intense friendships between men and women in religious contexts Its diverse and vividly realized settings include the glamorous disreputable public household of the Restoration court and the great gardens of the day at once little worlds in microcosm and recreations of paradise on earth
