

Love Of My Life

Here i am looking into the future planning on how to get the picture of love so pure that makes me so sure, oh sweet love, like dew from above coming down to sooth my wounds and like the lark heralds daylight that i may carry you beyond all bounds to my hearts utmost delight.

This love,so blind and still so right takes me through the darkest of nights that i may awaken to find myself as glorious as an elf in this true picture of love that is a gift from above.

Leland, 2024-02-09 About the Book Donald Hall remains one of the most published writers of his time Named Poet Laureate by President George W Bush Hall continued to publish both poetry and prose up to the time of his death in 2018 While his last writing focused mainly on prose Hall will likely be remembered for his undeniable contribution to many different styles and genres of writing He was well known to many if not most of the published poets of his age It remains somewhat of a mystery however that so renowned and published a writer would perpetuate a correspondence of nearly eleven years with someone he never met and could know nothing about It never occurred to me that Donald Hall would respond to my initial letter to him My initial letter to him was chiefly to tell him how much I had admired his poetry how often I had used his poetry in my teaching what some of the issues his most recent poetry raised for me all while wishing him well in his future endeavors I did not expect any response to what I understood to be a stand alone letter and could not have imagined then that a correspondence so innocently and routinely begun would continue for eleven years All of the letters I wrote to Hall in those eleven years are included in this collection Most of my professional life has been in academia I received a PhD Degree from the University of Minnesota in 1975 the same year I began my tenured teaching at East Stroudsburg University in eastern Pennsylvania Throughout my adult life I have always been a writer though not one who ever prioritized publishing I ve written poetry short stories essays and full length plays However my search was always for ever greater authenticity in my own writing and ever greater satisfaction in the authenticity other writers were able to achieve Very few who know me know anything of my life as a writer I am not sure looking back why I persisted and continue to persist in writing but I do know that writing has been a meaningful act in guiding the integrity of my own life When I am alone and at my desk I confront myself I seek an honesty of thought and emotion difficult to find elsewhere But what I have discovered is that in attempting to come ever closer to my own individuality of thought and emotion I paradoxically come closer to thoughts and emotions shared by many That being the case there may be a wider interest in how those thoughts and emotions evolved over the eleven years of a correspondence focused primarily on writing and its inter connection with the challenges of ordinary living You will need to be the judge of that Philosophical Essay on the Works of Louise-Victorine Ackermann : My life, First poems, Philosophical poems (1877) - Translated from French and with a philosophical essay by Fritz Dufour (2017) Fritz Dufour, Linguist, MBA, DESS, 2017-04-25 Louise Victorine Ackermann was a French poet Her works were originally written in French in verses and in rhymes Reading this outstanding work is transcendental I compare it to walking inside an empty hope and aspiration I'd imagine now for then During the same time there was its harsh reality with all its problems you might dare face wanting to overcome more than any time in your life It was joyous ecstatic inspiring yet frustrating depressing and even a sense of utter hopelessness Throughout I'd cling to the faith that I wanted to be so integral to the whole dynamic speaking often of its importance Neither of us no matter where we really were in all this can remain unaffected rh

POETRY ELEGANT EXTRACTS: Or Useful & Entertaining PASSAGES in Verse , Experimentalism as Reciprocal Communication in Contemporary American Poetry Elina Siltanen, 2016-10-06 The poems of John Ashbery Lyn Hejinian and Ron Silliman may seem to offer endless small details of expression observation thought and narrative which fail to hang together even from one line to the next But as Elina Siltanen shows here this extraordinary flow of uncoordinated detail can stimulate readers to join the poets in a delightful exploration of ordinary language When readers take a poem in this spirit they actually begin to read as members of a community the community not only of themselves and other readers but also including the poet and other poets plus all the speakers of the language in which the poem is written For all these different parties that language is indeed a shared resource and the way for readers to get started is simply by recalling or imagining some of the numerous kinds of context in which the given poem's words phrases sentences could or could not be successfully used The rewards for such proactive readers are on the one hand a heightened sense of the subtle interweavings of language and life and on the other hand a freshly empowered self confidence The point being that within the community of contemporary experimental poetry poets have no more authority than readers Rejecting older cultural hierarchies they present themselves as teasing out the idiomatic serendipities of their own poems together with their readers The
