Lovesong Becoming A Jew:

Lovesong Julius Lester, 2013 Julius Lester was born the son of a black Methodist minister in the south His book Lovesong is a beautifully written account of his spiritual journey away from the conventions of his Southern heritage and Methodist upbringing culminating in his personal self discovery through a conversion to Judaism Growing up in the turbulent civil rights era South Lester was often discouraged by the disconnectedness between the promises of religion and the realities of his life He used the outlets available to him to try to come to grips with this split and somehow reconcile the injustice Lovesong Julius Lester, 1988 The author chronicles his earliest encounters with faith in the figure of his father a black Methodist minister his earliest recollections of the lure of Judaism the South before the Civil Rights movement and his conversion to Judaism The State of American Jewry Frederick E. Greenspahn, 2025-07-22 The essays in this volume describe the current nature of American Jewry including demography ethnicity gender political and religious attitudes and organizational structure all of which have changed dramatically over the past few decades Provided by publisher Encyclopedia of Judaism Sara E. Karesh, Mitchell M. Hurvitz, 2005 An illustrated A to Z reference containing over 800 entries providing information on the theology people historical events institutions and movements related to the religion of Judaism

Judaism Dan Cohn-Sherbok, 2003-09-02 Written by an experienced university teacher who is also a scholar and rabbi this extensive textbook presents an unrivalled guide to the history belief and practice of Judaism Beginning with the ancient Near Eastern background it covers early Israelite history the emergence of classical rabbinic literature and the rise of medieval Judaism in Islamic and Christian lands It also explores the early modern period and the development of Jewry throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Extracts from primary sources are used to enliven the narrative and provide concrete examples of Jewish civilization Judaism introduces texts and commentaries including the Hebrew Bible rabbinic texts mystical literature Jewish philosophy and Jewish theology provides the skills necessary to understand these step by step explains how to interpret the major events in nearly 4 000 years of Jewish history supports study with discussion questions on the central historical and religious issues includes key reading for each chapter and an extensive bibliography illustrates the development of Judaism its concepts and observances with nearly 200 maps and photographs A companion website links each chapter to other online resources and gives guidance on activities and support for teachers The Colors of Jews Melanie Kaye/Kantrowitz, 2007-06-14 Exposes and challenges the common assumptions about whom and what Jews are by presenting in their own voices Jews of color from the Iberian Peninsula Asia Africa and India Kaye Kantrowitz delves into the largely uncharted territory of Jews of color and argues that Jews are an increasingly multiracial people From publisher description The Identity Question Robert Philipson, 2010-02-11 Despite the Enlightenment's promise of utopian belonging among all citizens blacks and Jews were excluded from the life of their host countries In their diasporic exile both groups were marginalized as slaves aliens unbelievers and frequently not fully human The Identity Question Blacks and Jews in Europe and America explores the effects of diaspora upon black and Jewish consciousness demonstrating similar histories of marginality and oppression Casting off the fixed social categories of an earlier age Enlightenment thinkers argued that all men in their capacity as citizens of a secular state had the right to full civic participation and equal protection under the law In theory such an ideology did not recognize classes or races of men automatically excluded from citizenship In fact negative images of blacks and Jews continued to inform European thought and policy providing a rationale for a thriving slave trade abroad and continued oppression of Jews at home Thus blacks and Jews were forced to define themselves in accordance with or in opposition to European ideas about who they were Of necessity blacks struggled against the stereotypes of black barbarism and bestiality Jewish intellectuals protested their alleged moral unfitness to participate in society while proclaiming primary allegiance to their host country rather than to other Jews Central to this examination are four key autobiographies two from the late 1700s and two from recent history The autobiographies of Richard Wright and Alfred Kazin taken as prime twentieth century American expressions of racial and ethnic identity reveal striking similarities to their Enlightenment counterparts in Europe the black Olaude Equiano and the Jewish Salomon Maimon Equiano Maimon Kazin and Wright all accept the ultimate desirability of Western culture All believe in the Enlightenment promise All were ostracized by the larger political cultures of Great Britain Germany and America but each made an arduous journey from the ethnic margins of language culture and tribal loyalty to the cosmopolitan center of London Berlin Chicago or New York These modern European conceptions of black and Jewish identity as well as the modern forms of racism that came to term in the eighteenth century entered America whole cloth Consequently American intellectual and social history of the twentieth century mirrors the same movements toward acceptance and ostracism that had existed in Enlightenment Europe

Race, Color, Identity Efraim Sicher, 2013-05-01 Advances in genetics are renewing controversies over inherited characteristics and the discourse around science and technological innovations has taken on racial overtones such as attributing inherited physiological traits to certain ethnic groups or using DNA testing to determine biological links with ethnic ancestry This book contributes to the discussion by opening up previously locked concepts of the relation between the terms color race and Jews and by engaging with globalism multiculturalism hybridity and diaspora The contributors leading scholars in anthropology sociology history literature and cultural studies discuss how it is not merely a question of whether Jews are acknowledged to be interracial but how to address academic and social discourses that continue to place Jews and others in a race color category

Imagining Each Other Ethan Goffman, 2012-02-01 Imagining Each Other explores Black Jewish relations by examining the complex ways they have portrayed each other in recent American literature It illuminates their dramatic alliances and conflicts and their dilemmas of identity and assimilation and addresses the persistent questions of ethnic division and economic inequality that have so encompassed the Black Jewish narrative in America Focusing primarily on the 1960s and its aftermath the book reveals how Jewish and African Americans view each other through a complex dialectic of identification and difference channeled by ever shifting positions within American society Through the works of Richard Wright Saul Bellow Bernard Malamud Amiri Baraka Paule Marshall Grace Paley and others Goffman unfolds a story of two peoples with powerful biblical and mythic connections that replay themselves in contemporary circumstances In doing so he uncovers layers of meaning in works that dramatize this turbulent paradoxical relationship and reveals how this relationship is paradigmatic of multicultural American self invention
