The Loving Bond Phil Arkow, Latham Foundation, 1987 Handbook on Animal-Assisted Therapy Aubrey H Fine, 2010-09-21 In the 10 years since the first edition of Handbook on Animal Assisted Therapy published the field has changed considerably The third edition of the Handbook highlights advances in the field with 10 new chapters and over 50% new material In reading this book therapists will discover the benefits of incorporating animal assisted therapy into their practice how to design and implement animal assisted interventions and the efficacy of animal assisted therapy with different disorders and patient populations Coverage includes the use of AAT with children families and the elderly in counseling and psychotherapy settings and for treating a variety of specific disorders Includes coverage of the use of cats dogs birds and horses Discusses the why to use animals in therapy as well as the how Covers the use of animal assisted therapy with different special populations and to treat different disorders Pet Loss and Human Emotion, Second Edition Cheri Barton Ross, 2013-05-13 This updated edition of Pet Loss and Human Emotion is a step by step guide to leading clients through this special kind of grief Includes resources and a section on pet loss and natural disasters As society accepts that grieving over the death of a loved one is not only normal but healthy and necessary grieving over the loss of a pet is often seen differently Expressed feelings often go unvalidated when in truth pet loss is a unique form of grief that can be quite intense and debilitating increasing an individual's vulnerability to subsequent stress and leaving them feeling isolated and misunderstood Pet loss needs to be addressed by therapists and others in the helping professions to better enable them to help their clients through the loss of their companion animals This unique guide is written for all professionals helping clients deal with the loss of a pet and serves as a practical introduction to the field of human animal bonding Citing several case studies it describes various techniques for helping clients when the bond with a pet is broken Current Bibliographies in Medicine, 1988 Pet Loss and Human Emotion Cheri Barton Ross, Jane Baron-Sorensen, 1998 This updated edition of Pet Loss and Human Emotion is a step by step guide to leading clients through this special kind of grief Includes resources and a section on pet loss and natural disasters As society accepts that grieving over the death of a loved one is not only normal but healthy and necessary grieving over the loss of a pet is often seen differently Expressed feelings often go unvalidated when in truth pet loss is a unique form of grief that can be quite intense and debilitating increasing an individual's vulnerability to subsequent stress and leaving them feeling isolated and misunderstood Pet loss needs to be addressed by therapists and others in the helping professions to better enable them to help their clients through the loss of their companion animals This unique guide is written for all professionals helping clients deal with the loss of a pet and serves as a practical introduction to the field of human animal bonding Citing several case studies it describes various techniques for helping clients when the bond with a pet is broken Optimizing Therapy Dog-Handler Team Welfare John-Tyler Binfet, Christine Yvette

Tardif-Williams,2025-06-30 Informed by research and grounded in critical discussions of theory and practice Optimizing Therapy Dog Handler Team Welfare challenges readers to explore the complexities inherent in and arising from practices that optimize welfare for therapy dog handler teams Each chapter begins with a case study that elucidates the complexities of canine assisted interventions and invites readers to consider welfare from multiple perspectives This book positions welfare as a factor impacting both the therapy dog and the handler considering the dog handler as a cohesive team Researchers educators and practitioners from across disciplines will find this book both scientifically savvy and practical

Children and Animals Frank R. Ascione,2005 Animal abuse has been an acknowledged problem for centuries but only within the past few decades has scientific research provided evidence that the maltreatment of animals often overlaps with violence toward people The variants of violence including bullying or assaults in a schoolyard child abuse in homes violence between adult intimate partners community hostility in our streets and neighborhoods and even the context of war are now the subject of concerted research efforts Very often the association of these forms of violence with cruelty to animals has been found The perpetrators of such inhumane treatment are often children and adolescents How common are these incidents What motivates human maltreatment of animals Are there cultural societal neighborhood and family contexts that contribute to cruelty to animals How early in a child's life does cruelty to animals emerge and are these incidents always a sign of future interpersonal violence Are there ways of preventing such cruelty Can we intervene effectively with children who already have a history of abuse and violence Children and Animals Exploring the Roots of Kindness and Cruelty presents the current scientific and professional wisdom about the relation between the maltreatment of animals and interpersonal violence directed toward other human beings However the author Frank R Ascione a noted expert in these areas writes in a style and presents the findings in a language that will be understandable to parents teachers counselors clergy animal welfare professionals foster parents mental health professionals youth workers law enforcement professionals and anyone else whose work or interest crosses into the lives of children and adolescents The Dog Linda P.
