Loving Rachel:

Nineteenth-century Black Women's Literary Emergence SallyAnn H. Ferguson, 2008 Since her forced migration to the United States the African American woman has consciously developed a literary tradition based on fundamental evolutionary principles of mind and body She has consistently resisted attempts by patriarchs and matriarchs alike to romanticize and redefine that biologically based literary heritage This volume of ten classic texts including such nineteenth century writers as Jarena Lee Harriet Jacobs and Angelina Grimk documents for teachers and general readers how African American female self portraits gradually crystallized over some three centuries of brutality imposed by white men and their surrogates who legally raped and then branded her immoral precisely because she was black and female This anthology also explores how her literary features were further defined during the postbellum era of Jim Crow segregation and civil rights abuses Readers cannot adequately understand this woman s unique story without learning how and more importantly why mental and physical atrocities so gruesome that most people cringe to think of them were inflicted upon her black female self in this land

Hatch, Ted Shine, 1996-03 A collection of 51 plays that features previously unpublished works contemporary plays by women and the modern classics Double-take Venetria K. Patton, Maureen Honey, 2001 Brings together a comprehensive selection of texts from the Harlem Renaissance a key period in the literary and cultural history of the United States Offers a unique balanced collection of writers men and women gay and straight familiar and obscure Arranged by author rather than by genre this anthology includes works from major Harlem Renaissance figures as well as often overlooked essayists poets dramatists and artists Contains works from a wide variety of genres poetry short stories drama and essays as well as biographical sketches of the authors Includes most pieces in their entirety Also includes artwork and illustrations many of which are from original journals and have never before been reprinted and song lyrics to illustrate the interrelation of various art forms Strange Fruit Kathy A. Perkins, Judith L. Stephens, 1998-01-22 These lynching dramas may not present the picture that America wants to see of itself but these visions cannot be ignored because they are grounded not only in the truth of white racism s toxic effect on our national existence but also in the truth that there exists a contesting collective response that is part of an on going and continually building momentum Theaatre Journal A unique powerful collection worthy of high school and college classroom assignment and discussion Bookwatch This anthology is the first to address the impact of lynching on U S theater and culture By focusing on women s unique view of lynching this collection of plays reveals a social history of interracial cooperation between black and white women and an artistic tradition that continues to evolve through the work of African American women artists Included are plays spanning the period 1916 to 1994 from playwrights such as Angelina Weld Grimke Georgia Douglas Johnson Lillian Smith and Michon Boston In the Days of Sand and Stars Marlee Pinsker, 2012-01-11 Take out your time telescope wipe the dust and cobwebs from its lens tilt it upwards and find a twinkling speck of light Now look behind it way back to the days of sand and stars Here are the Midrash stories of famous women whose names you may know but whose daily lives and human thoughts have been ignored for far too long From Eve to Emzera from Sarah to Rebecca they are presented here with humor and affection as they face a new and changing world where miracles and customs shape their destiny Midrash tales are what if stories built around the grains of information the Bible offers and author Marlee Pinsker excels as she imbues these legendary women with warmth and spirit A wonderful gift book for anyone but especially meaningful for Bat Mitzvahs and Confirmations In the Days of Sand and Stars is an impressive straightforward collection sparse and clear in its telling Quebec artist Francois Thisdale has produced a marvelous collection of images with his time telescope and digital expertise Through his talents we see all of these very human women in moments of reflection tenderness ingenuity and wonder narrative of the formative dialogue between black transnationalism and U S international diplomacy Artistic Ambassadors also illuminates a broader literary culture that reached both black and white America as well as the black diaspora and the wider world of people of color In light of the U S appointments of its first two black secretaries of state and the election of its first black president this complex representational legacy has continued relevance to our understanding of current American internationalism
