This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions
In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English
In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions
Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed
Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture
In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group
The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions

LUCIAN I am a Dragon Prince of the House of Smoke and I am dying
Five hundred years is truly enough for a man like me
A monster Yet a ten thousand year treaty will die with me if I don t spawn a dragonling to take my place
My two brothers are no use in this task
It falls to me the eldest by a hair s breadth and yet I cannot face the horror of another
