

Lower Saucon Township Pennsylvania

William Jacob Heller

Lower Saucon Township Pennsylvania:

Lower Saucon Township Lee A. Weidner, Karen M. Samuels, Barbara J. Ryan, 2005 Lower Saucon Township provides a unique glimpse of the region's many diverse villages and the German immigrant population. Towns including Wassergass, Shimersville, Polk Valley, Redington, and Bingen were settled largely because of the area's fertile soil, abundant water, and many iron and limestone deposits which contributed to surrounding communities such as Bethlehem and Hellertown, both socially and economically. These rare family photographs depict a blend of lives that influenced the area before and after the industrial revolution.

Saucon Valley Daniel T. Ruth, Karen M. Samuels, and Lee A. Weidner, 2015 Before the first European settlers arrived in the Saucon Valley, the local Native American tribe, the Lenape, named the 17-mile eastern Pennsylvania creek Saucon, meaning "at the mouth of the creek." Saucon Valley refers to the area drained by the Saucon Creek, a tributary of the Lehigh River. The valley includes Hellertown and Lower Saucon Township in Northampton County. Lower Saucon Township was chartered in 1743 when it was still a part of Bucks County. The township also included South Bethlehem until 1865 and Hellertown until 1872. Before becoming a borough in 1872, Hellertown was the largest village in Lower Saucon Township for many years. Even though the two municipalities remain separate, it is today impossible to disunite the families' culture and history that have been interwoven through the years.
