The Jews of the Middle East and North Africa in Modern Times Reeva Spector Simon, Michael Menachem Laskier, Sara Reguer, 2003-04-30 Despite considerable research on the Jewish diaspora in the Middle East and North Africa since 1800 there has until now been no comprehensive synthesis that illuminates both the differences and commonalities in Jewish experience across a range of countries and cultures This lacuna in both Jewish and Middle Eastern studies is due partly to the fact that in general histories of the region Jews have been omitted from the standard narrative As part of the religious and ethnic mosaic that was traditional Islamic society Jews were but one among numerous minorities and so have lacked a systematic treatment Addressing this important oversight this volume documents the variety and diversity of Jewish life in the region over the last two hundred years It explains the changes that affected the communities under Islamic rule during its golden age and describes the processes of modernization that enabled the Jews to play a pivotal role in their respective countries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The first half of the book is thematic covering topics ranging from languages to economic life and from religion and music to the world of women The second half is a country by country survey that covers Turkey Syria Lebanon Israel Palestine Iraq Iran Afghanistan Yemen Egypt the Sudan Libya Tunisia Algeria and Morocco

A Concordance to Juan Ruiz Libro de Buen Amor Rigo Mignani, Mario A. Di Cesare, George F. Jones, 1977-06-30 This book represents the first concordance of Juan Ruiz's Book of Good Love Libro de Buen Amor written in the fourteenth century The volume's editors dealing with three slightly different manuscripts have chosen to meticulously integrate the language from all three editions into one thorough concordance The result is a significant work that serves as a companion to Ruiz's work that would be vital to any study of medieval Spanish linguistics In addition to the usual material to be found in a concordance this book has the following features the text appears in diplomatic transcription from the manuscripts for fidelity while the entry list of words has been partly normalized as for spelling for convenience an extensive list of homographs no omission of high frequency words frequency list at the end no reproduction of bulky and difficult computer printout The book has been photocomposed from the tape
