Lubitsch Ou La Satire Romanesque:

New Approaches to Ernst Lubitsch Brigitte Peucker, Ido Lewit, 2025-10-01 This exciting collection of unpublished essays on Ernst Lubitsch addresses multiple gaps in scholarly and critical engagement with the director His understudied early German films shed light on Jewish culture on the relation of comedy to gender and the influence of theatre on his filmmaking The popular historical epics brought Lubitsch an invitation to Hollywood in 1922 There Lubitsch helped develop the film musical and notably contributed to the genre of Hollywood romantic comedy The well known scholars film historians archivists and theorists whose essays appear in this volume expand our knowledge of the set designers actors directors and members of the emigr community who contributed to Lubitsch s vibrant films An emphasis on the role of material objects opens up a new dimension of critical engagement with the director Light is shed on neglected films and the antifascist dimension of his oeuvre brings his political stance clearly to light As these essays make clear Lubitsch s cinema is elusive and deserving of our close attention Herr Lubitsch Goes to Hollywood Kristin Thompson, 2005 The first study by an acclaimed American scholar of the artistic interdependencies between the German and the Hollywood cinema in the 1920s

German film director Ernst Lubitsch 1892 1947 is famous for his sense of ironic detachment and for the eroticism he infused into such comedies as So This Is Paris and Trouble in Paradise. In a general introduction to his silent and early sound films 1914 1932 and in close readings of his comedies Sabine Hake focuses on the visual strategies Lubitsch used to convey irony and analyzes his contribution to the rise of classical narrative cinema. Exploring Lubitsch's depiction of femininity and the influence of his early German films on his entire career she argues that his comedies represent an important outlet for dealing with sexual and cultural differences. The readings cover The Oyster Princess, The Doll, The Mountain Cat, Passion, Deception, So This Is Paris, Monte Carlo and Trouble in Paradise which are interpreted as part of an underlying process of negotiation between different modes of representation, narration and spectatorship, a process that comprises the conditions of production in two different national cinemas and the ongoing changes in film technology. Drawing attention to Lubitsch's previously neglected German films, this book presents the years until 1922 as the formative period in his career.

The Trouble with Men Phil Powrie, Ann Davies, Bruce Babington, 2004. A collection of original essays focusing on masculinity and film, particularly the representation of European masculinity. Split into four sections: stars, class and race, fathers and bodies. Areas covered include the Carmen films, Yiddish cinema, romantic comedy and beur cinema.
