Lucan The Civil War Loeb Classical Library:

Poetry and Civil War in Lucan's Bellum Civile Jamie Masters, 1992-03-12 Lucan is the wild maverick among Latin epic poets Sneered at for over a century for failing to conform to humanist canons of taste and propriety in recent years his work has been gaining in reputation This 1992 book is founded on a genuine admiration for Lucan's unique perverse and spellbinding masterpiece Above all Dr Masters argues the poem is obsessed with civil war not only as the subject of the story it tells but as a metaphor which determines the way that story is told In these pages he discusses in detail a number of selected episodes from the poem which illustrate this principle and on this basis offers challenging perspective on most of the important issues in Lucanian studies such as Lucan's political stance his attitude to Caesar his iconoclastic relation to Virgil and the epic tradition and his distortion of history and geography This book is a major re-evaluation provocative and persuasive of a central figure in the history of Latin epic

Dissidence and Literature Under Nero Vasily Rudich, 2013-05-13 This work inquires into the impact of dissident sensibilities on the writings of the major Neronian authors It offers a detailed and innovative analysis of essays poetry and fiction written by Seneca Lucan and Petronius and illuminates their psychological and moral anguish The study is intended as a companion volume to Vasily Rudich's earlier work Political Dissidence under Nero: The Price of Dissimulation where he discussed the ways in which dissident sensibilities of the Neronians affected their actual behaviour Dissidence and Literature under Nero extends this analysis to show how the same sensibilities became manifest in the texts written by the Neronian authors It explores the pressures on authors under a repressive regime who strive to maintain their artistic integrity Thus the argument of this book can be seen as a comparison between the predicament of a Neronian dissident and the situation of the postmodern intellectual It will interest professional classicists and the wider audience concerned with the ongoing debate on the benefits and perils of rhetorical discourse

On the Wings of Eagles Christopher Anthony Matthew, 2009-12-14 Gaius Marius 157-86B was one of the most innovative and influential commanders of antiquity With Marius in command of its legions Rome prevailed on the battlefields of North Africa and defeated a two-pronged invasion of the Italian peninsula by 300,000 migrating Germanic tribesmen The reason for this success was a series of five ground-breaking reforms through which Marius dramatically altered the demographics recruitment training and operation of the Roman army In effect Marius's reforms changed the Roman military from a service of short-term militia into a professional standing army This allowed Rome to use the military as an effective tool for military expansion and internal security and laid the foundations for the role of the Roman army for centuries to come Many of these reforms however came at a cost to the stability of the state This book charts the military implications of Marius's reforms what they were why they were made how they were made and how they altered the functionality of the Roman military history Lucan M Annaeus Lucanus AD 39 65 son of wealthy M Annaeus Mela and nephew of Seneca was born at Corduba Cordova in Spain and was brought as a baby to Rome In AD 60 at a festival in Emperor Nero s honor Lucan praised him in a panegyric and was promoted to one or two minor offices But having defeated Nero in a poetry contest he was interdicted from further recitals or publication so that three books of his epic The Civil War were probably not issued in 61 when they were finished By 65 he was composing the tenth book but then became involved in the unsuccessful plot of Piso against Nero and aged only twenty six by order took his own life Quintilian called Lucan a poet full of fire and energy and a master of brilliant phrases His epic stood next after Virgil s in the estimation of antiquity Julius Caesar looms as a sinister hero in his stormy chronicle in verse of the war between Caesar and the Republic s forces under Pompey and later under Cato in Africa a chronicle of dramatic events carrying us from Caesar s fateful crossing of the Rubicon through the Battle of Pharsalus and death of Pompey to Caesar victorious in Egypt The poem is also called Pharsalia The English Baroque in Early Modern Literature Robert Hudson Vincent,2025 While the baroque remains a foundational concept for other European literary and aesthetic traditions scholars have largely elided the word from British literary history Instead of baroque most critics prefer to use terms like metaphysical Stuart and Laudian words that emphasise England s primacy rather than its connections with the world In response to these Anglocentric approaches The English Baroque in Early Modern Literature demonstrates how the baroque can deepen our understanding of the multilingual cross confessional and interdisciplinary features of early modern English literature It connects the works of Margaret Cavendish John Donne John Milton and William Shakespeare among other English authors to the style of excess that spread across Europe and the colonial world during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries In doing so Robert Hudson Vincent offers a compelling new vision of the baroque as an aesthetic logic for thinking about and living with excess in the early modern world Dante Alighieri Brett Foster,2009 Presents a collection of critical essays on the works of Dante Alighieri The Oxford History of Poetry in English Laura L. Knoppers,2024-08-08 Beginning with the last years of the reign of Elizabeth I and ending late in the seventeenth century this volume traces the growth of the literary marketplace the development of poetic genres and the participation of different writers in a century of poetic continuity change and transformation The Oxford History of Poetry in English ,2024-08-08 The Oxford History of Poetry in English OHOPE is designed to offer a fresh multi voiced and comprehensive analysis of poetry from Anglo Saxon culture through contemporary British Irish American and Global culture including English Scottish and Welsh poetry Anglo American colonial and post colonial poetry and poetry in Canada Australia New Zealand the Caribbean India Africa Asia and other international locales OHOPE both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge research employing a global team of expert contributors for each of the fourteen volumes By taking as its purview the full seventeenth century 1603 1700 this volume re draws the existing literary historical map and expands upon recent rethinking of the canon Placing the revolutionary years at the centre of a century of poetic transformation and putting the Restoration back into the seventeenth century the volume registers the transformative effects on poetic forms of a century of social political and religious upheaval It considers the achievements of a number of women poets not yet fully integrated into traditional literary histories It assimilates the vibrant literature of the English Revolution to what came before and after registering its long term impact It traces the development of print culture and of the literary marketplace alongside the continued circulation of poetry in manuscript It places John Milton Andrew Marvell Margaret Cavendish and Katherine Philips and other mid century poets into the full century of specifically literary development It traces continuity and change imitation and innovation in the full century trajectory of such poetic genres as sonnet elegy satire georgic epigram ode devotional lyric and epic The volume s attention to poetic form builds on the current upswing in historicist formalism allowing a close focus on poetry as an intensely aesthetic and social literary mode Designed for maximum classroom utility the organization is both thematic and in the authors section chronological After a comprehensive Introduction organizational sections focus on Transitions Materiality Production and Circulation Poetics and Form Genres and Poets
