Laura Alemán,2006    José Donoso's House of Fiction Flora María González Mandri,1995 This volume examines the multiple narrative perspectives Donoso presents and traces a transformation in Donoso's works from complex stage performance to political forum Studying fiction as grotesque mannered theater or as a transparent screen through which social and political concerns are scrutinized Gonzalez Mandri illuminates another constant in Donoso's work a weaving of feminine and masculine aspects of artistic voice as they incorporate the idioms of drama radio film and television BOOK JACKET    Onetti and Others Gustavo San Roman,Gustavo San Román,1999-07-01 Explores the connections between Onetti a foundational figure of the 1960s Boom in Latin American literature and other relevant writers and texts from Latin America and beyond    Understanding José Donoso Sharon Magnarelli,1993 Chilean writer Jos Donoso is one of a handful of authors inevitably mentioned in relationship to the boom in Spanish American literature during the 1960s and 1970s His name is frequently linked with those of other Latin writers such as Garc a M rquez Vargas Llosa Fuentes Rulfo and Cort zar Like his contemporaries Donoso blends the physical and the psychological in his fiction The perceptions of his characters are constantly changing For Donoso reality is a state of mind always subject to the imagination and nothing is stable    The

Films of Arturo Ripstein Manuel Gutiérrez Silva,Luis Duno Gottberg,2019-10-24 This book gathers eleven scholarly contributions dedicated to the work of Mexican director Arturo Ripstein The collection the first of its kind constitutes a sustained critical engagement with the twenty nine films made by this highly acclaimed yet under studied filmmaker The eleven essays included come from scholars whose work stands at the intersection of the fields of Latin American and Mexican Film Studies Gender and Queer Studies Cultural Studies History and Literary studies Ripstein's films often scripted by his long time collaborator Paz Alicia Garciadiego represent an unprecedented achievement in Mexican and Latin American film Unlike many of his contemporaries Ripstein has successfully maintained a prolific output unmatched by any director in the region Though several book length studies have been published in Spanish French German and Greek to date no analogue exists in English This volume provides a much needed contribution to the field    Cinema of Solitude Charles Ramírez Berg,2010-07-05 La crisis a period of political and economic turmoil in Mexico that began in the late 1960s spawned a new era in Mexican cinema Known as el Nuevo Cine the New Cinema these films presented alienated characters caught in a painful transition period in which old family gender and social roles have ceased to function without being replaced by viable new ones These are the films explored by Charles Ram rez Berg in Cinema of Solitude the first book length critical study of Mexican cinema in English Berg discusses the major films and filmmakers of el Nuevo Cine in depth He analyzes dozens of commercial movies from popular comedies and adventures to award winning films Introductory chapters address the issue of mexicanidad Mexican national identity and outline Mexican history the history of film as popular culture and as a leading national industry and the ideological dynamics of Mexican cinema In thematically arranged chapters Berg investigates the images of women men and social structures portrayed in New Cinema films He finds that women characters have begun to reject traditional stereotypes for more positive images while male characters have grown ambiguous and undefined as machismo is abandoned Other chapters trace the continuing marginalization of Indians in Mexican culture the changes in male dominance within the family and the disruptive social and economic effects caused by migration For everyone interested in Mexican culture as reflected in its major cinematic productions as well as students of film theory and national cinemas this book will be important reading    Latin American Films, 1932-1994 Ronald Schwartz,2015-09-17

Saint-André,1997    El Lugar Sin Limites José Donoso,1966    Encierro y sustitución en El obsceno pájaro de la noche de José Donoso Adrián Santini,2001    The Spanish American Novel John S. Brushwood,2014-07-03 In The Spanish American Novel John S Brushwood analyzes the twentieth century Spanish American novel as an artistic expression of social reality In relating the generic history of the novel to extraliterary events in Spanish America he shows how twentieth century fiction sets forth the essence of such phenomena as the first Per n regime the Mexican Revolution the Che Guevara legend indigenismo and the strongman political type In essence he views the novel as art rather than as document but not as art alienated from society The discussion is organized chronologically opening with the turn of the century and focusing on novels from 1900 to 1915 that exemplify various aspects of the nineteenth century literary inheritance Brushwood then highlights the avant garde fiction influenced by Proust and Joyce of the 1920s as a precursory movement to the new Latin American novel a phenomenon that came into its own during the 1940s He then examines the boom in Spanish American fiction the period of extensive international recognition of certain works which he dates from 1962 or 1963 In each era considered the development of the novel is placed in dual perspective One view that of particularly significant novels in light of others published during the same year is a cross section of the genre at one particular moment The second view that of a panorama of novels published in intervals between significant moments in the history of the novel is more general and selective in the number of books discussed Combining the historical with the analytical approach the author proposes that the experience of a novel in which reality has been transformed into art is essential to our understanding of that reality
