We Never Swim in the Same River Twice Hassouna Mosbahi, 2024-09-16 During Tunisia's Arab Spring and its tilt toward Islamism we meet three friends Saleem who is about to turn fifty and whose once blissful marriage teeters on the edge as his mental health deteriorates Aziz a homely retired postal clerk who finds solace in literature and international cinema and Omran a well traveled writer and public intellectual navigating a complex relationship with a young Franco-Tunisian woman who lives in Paris As these men forge an unlikely friendship over drinks at a coastal bar in Bizerte and during walks on the beach they grapple with the political extremism that dominates Tunisia's social and political life at the time Repelled by Islamist rhetoric and the brand of masculinity it represents the three friends recall their lives and question their relationship to their nation We Never Swim in the Same River Twice offers an alternative narrative of the Arab Spring one that challenges Western media's depiction of a blessed revolution and gives readers an intimate and elegiac portrait of a recent period in Tunisian history
