Lynch Town Steele No 11:

Climatological Service, District No. 11, California, 1931      Bulletin, 1915      Death Trail George G. Gilman, 1978-12      Civic Reformation and Religious Change in Sixteenth-Century Scottish Towns Timothy Slonosky, 2024-05-31 Civic Reformation and Religious Change in Sixteenth Century Scottish Towns demonstrates the crucial role of Scotland's townspeople in the dramatic Protestant Reformation of 1560. It shows that Scottish Protestants were much more successful than their counterparts in France and the Netherlands at introducing religious change because they had the acquiescence of urban populations. As town councils controlled critical aspects of civic religion, their explicit cooperation was vital to ensuring that the reforms introduced at the national level by the military and political victory of the Protestants were actually implemented. Focusing on the towns of Dundee, Stirling, and Haddington, this book argues that the councillors and inhabitants gave this support because successive crises of plague, war, and economic collapse shook their faith in the existing Catholic order and left them fearful of further conflict. As a result, the Protestants faced little popular opposition and Scotland avoided the popular religious violence and division which occurred elsewhere in Europe.      The Irish Law Times and Solicitors' Journal, 1868      The Daily Bond Buyer, 1902      The City Record, 1878      Typographical Journal, 1910

Proceedings of the Board of Supervisors of Greene County Greene County (N.Y.). County Legislature, 1928      The American Pressman, 1899      Built Environment and Population Health in Small-Town America Mahbub Rashid, 2024-03-12 A groundbreaking look at the complex relationship between the built environment and population health in small town America. The links between urban settings and health issues are well established, but the built environments of smaller cities and towns also play a crucial role in population well-being. In this book, Mahbub Rashid, who employs innovative spatial and social network analysis techniques to examine the impact of built form and space on people's behavior, psychology, society, and culture, uses extensive spatial, demographic, and health data to study the crucial role of the built environment in small Kansas cities. The first book of its kind, Built Environment and Population Health in Small Town America sheds light on the critical factors shaping the well-being of these communities and provides valuable insights for building healthier futures.

Building and Engineering News, 1928      The Dead of the Irish Revolution Eunan O'Hallpin, Daithí O'Corrain, 2020-10-27 The first comprehensive account to record and analyze all deaths arising from the Irish revolution between 1916 and 1921. This account covers the turbulent period from the 1916 Rising to the Anglo-Irish Treaty of December 1921, a period which saw the achievement of independence for most of nationalist Ireland and the establishment of Northern Ireland as a self-governing province of the United Kingdom. Separatists fought for independence against government forces, and in North East Ulster, armed loyalists. Civilians suffered violence from all combatants, sometimes as collateral damage, often as targets. Eunan O'Hallpin and Daithí O'Corrain catalogue and analyze the deaths of all men, women, and children who died during the revolutionary years 1916-1921. This study provides a unique and comprehensive picture of everyone who died in what manner by whose hands and why Through their stories we obtain original insight into the Irish revolution itself
