

Five little ducks

Five little ducks went swimming one day
Over the hills and far away
Mother duck said, "Quack, quack, quack, quack,"
but only four little ducks came back...

Four little ducks went swimming one day
Over the hills and far away
Mother duck said, "Quack, quack, quack, quack,"
but only three little ducks came back...

Three little ducks went swimming one day
Over the hills and far away
Mother duck said, "Quack, quack, quack, quack,"
but only two little ducks came back...

Two little ducks went swimming one day
Over the hills and far away
Mother duck said, "Quack, quack, quack, quack,"
but only one little duck came back...

One little duck went swimming one day
Over the hills and far away
Mother duck said, "Quack, quack, quack, quack,"
and five little ducks came swimming back.

Crafting a Collection Anna Shields, 2020-03-23 Compiled in 940 at the court of the kingdom of Shu the Huajian ji is the earliest extant collection of song lyrics by literati poets The collection has traditionally been studied as the precursor to the lyrics of the Song dynasty or in terms of what it contributed to the later development of the genre But scholars have rarely examined the work as an anthology and have more often focused on the work of individual poets and their respective contributions to the genre In this book Anna Shields examines the influence of court culture on the creation of the anthology and the significance of imitation and convention in its lyrics Shields suggests that by considering the Huajian ji only in terms of its contributions to a later model we unnecessarily limit ourselves to a single literary form and risk overlooking the broader influence of Tang culture on the Huajian ji By illuminating the historical and literary contexts of the anthology the author aims to situate the Huajian ji within larger questions of Chinese literary history particularly the influence of cultural forces on the emergence of genres and the development of romantic literature

Arabic-Andalusian Poetry and the Rise of the European Love-Lyric ‘Abdulwāhid Lu’lu’a,2013 The idea of this book goes back to the author s college days in the Department of Foreign Languages in Baghdad where he learned that English poetry developed under the influence of foreign types of poetry including classical medieval and Renaissance He began to wonder whether Arabic poetry had a role in that development especially in the love lyric its main aspect He researched during a sabbatical year in 1971 1972 in Cambridge UK and collected more material during summer vacations and conferences in Europe By 2010 he had enough material to write this book and a probable second edition The book covers European poetry in the late Middle Ages and early Renaissance especially the rise of the first poetry in non Latin and on non ecclesiastical subjects as seen in the love lyrics of the troubadours The 12th century troubadour love lyric shows a clear influence of Arabic Andalusian poetry especially the new and non European attitude to love and women This new poetry spread to Sicily Italy and was popularized by Dante and his disciples A further development reached England in the 16th century best represented by Shakespeare
