Esposito,Derya Iner,2018-10-13 While the themes of radicalization and Islamophobia have been broadly addressed by academia to date there has been little investigation of the crosspollination between the two Is Islamophobia a significant catalyst or influence on radicalization and recruitment How do radicalization and Islamophobia interact operate feed one another and ultimately pull societies toward polar extremes in domestic and foreign policy The wide ranging and global contributions collected here explore these questions through perspectives grounded in sociology political theory psychology and religion The volume provides an urgently needed and timely examination of the root causes of both radicalization and Islamophobia the cultural construction and consumption of radical and Islamophobic discourses the local and global contexts that fertilize these extreme stances and finally the everyday Muslim in the shadow of these opposing but equally vociferous forces

Embracing the World Ori Z. Soltes,2013-08-07 This book is not a comprehensive study of Rumi and G len but it seeks to explore the places where the thought of the one is echoed in the thinking of the other either overtly or indirectly and to note ways in which the opposite is true that G len diverges from Rumi The book is also seeking to suggest some of the larger contexts in which the thinking of both resides Given the wide ranging aspects of their respective writings it should not be surprising if minimally we can find important foundation stones in both philosophy and theology in the edifices that they each construct Minority Religions in Europe and the Middle East George D. an estimated worth of 25 billion Named after its leader Fethullah G len the movement has established more than 1 000 secular educational institutions in over 140 countries aiming to provide holistic education that incorporates both spirituality and the secular sciences Despite the movement s success little is known about how its schools are run or how Islam is operationalized Drawing on thirteen months of ethnographic fieldwork in Turkey Tittensor explores the movement s ideology and how it is practiced in the schools His interviews with both teachers and graduates from Africa Indonesia Central Asia and Turkey show that the movement is a missionary organization but of a singular kind its goal is not simply widespread religious conversion but a quest to recoup those Muslims who have apparently lost their way and to show non Muslims that Muslims can embrace modernity and integrate into the wider community Tittensor also examines the movement s operational side and shows how the schools represent an example of Mohammad Yunus s social business model a business with a social cause at its heart The House of Service is an insightful exploration of one of the world s largest transnational Muslim associations and will be invaluable for those seeking to understand how Islam will be perceived and practiced in the future
