Ma Vie Et Mes Films My Live And My Films:

The Films in My Life François Truffaut, 2014-08-24 From a cinematic grand master one of the most readable books of movie criticism and one of the most instructive American Film Institute An icon A rebel A legend The films of François Truffaut defined an exhilarating new form of cinema for moviegoers the world over But before Truffaut became a great director he was a critic who stood at the vanguard pioneering an innovative way to view movies and to write about the cinematic arts Now for the first time in eBook the legendary director shares his own words as one of the most influential filmmakers of all time examines the art of movie making through engaging and deeply personal reviews about the movies he loves Truffaut writes extensively about his heroes from Hitchcock to Welles Chaplin to Renoir Buñuel to Bergman Clouzot to Cocteau Capra to Hawks Guitry to Fellini sharing analysis and insight as to what made them film legends and how their work led Truffaut and his fellow directors into classics like The 400 Blows Jules and Jim and the French New Wave movement Articulate and candid The Films in My Life is for everyone who has sat in a dark movie theater and dreamed Truffaut brings the same intelligence and grace to the printed page that he projects onto the screen The Films in My Life provides a rare knowledgeable look at movies and moviemaking

Newsday A Companion to François Truffaut Dudley Andrew, Anne Gillain, 2013-02-11 A Companion to François Truffaut An unprecedented critical tribute to the director who in France wound up becoming the most controversial figure of the New Wave he helped found Raymond Bellour Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique This exciting collection breaks through the widely held critical view that Truffaut abandoned the iconoclasm of his early work for an academicism he had consistently railed against in his own film criticism Indeed if fever and fire were Truffaut's most consistent motifs the essays in this collection live up to his lifelong burning passion for the cinema Written by world famous scholars the essays exhaustively explore the themes and styles of the films as well as Truffaut's relationships to André Bazin Alfred Hitchcock and the directors of the New Wave his ground breaking and controversial film criticism and his position in the complex politics of French cultural life from the Popular Front to 1968 and after Angelo Restivo Georgia State University Although the New Wave one of the most influential aesthetic revolutions in the history of cinema might not have existed without him François Truffaut has largely been ignored by film scholars since his death almost thirty years ago As an innovative theoretician an influential critic and a celebrated filmmaker Truffaut formulated disseminated and illustrated the ideals of the New Wave with exceptional energy and distinction Yet no book in recent years has focused on Truffaut's value and his overall contribution to cinema deserves to be redefined not only to reinstate him in his proper place but to let us rethink how cinema developed during his lifetime In this new Companion thirty four original essays by leading film scholars offer new readings of individual films and original perspectives on the filmmaker's background influences and consequence Hugely influential around the globe Truffaut is assessed by international contributors who delve into the unique quality of his narratives and establish the depth of his distinctively styled work An extended interview with French filmmaker Arnaud Desplechin tracks Truffaut's controversial stature within French cinema and vividly identifies how he thinks and works as a director adding an irreplaceable perspective to this essential volume

Mists of Regret Dudley Andrew, 2021-11-09 Just before World War II French cinema reached a high point that has been dubbed the style of poetic realism Working with unforgettable actors like Jean Gabin and Arletty directors such as Renoir Carné Gremillon Duvivier and Chénal routinely captured the prizes for best film at every festival and in every country and their accomplishments led to general agreement that the French were the first to give maturity to the sound cinema Here the distinguished film scholar Dudley Andrew examines the motivations and consequences of these remarkable films by looking at the cultural web in which they were made Beyond giving a rich view of the life and worth of cinema in France Andrew contributes substantially to our knowledge of how films are dealt with in history Where earlier studies have treated the masterpieces of this era either in themselves or as part of the vision of their creators and where certain recent scholars have reacted to this by dissolving the masterpieces back into the system of entertainment that made them possible Andrew stresses the dialogue of culture and cinema In his view the films open questions that take us into the culture while our understanding of the culture gives energy direction and consequence to our reading of the films The book demonstrates the value of this hermeneutic approach for one set of texts and one period but it should very much interest film theorists and film historians of all sorts Catalog of Copyright Entries. Madame Bovary at the Movies Mary Donaldson-Evans, 2009 Some eighteen film directors from France to the United States Germany to India have applied themselves to the task of adapting Madame Bovary to the screen Why has Flaubert's 1857 classic novel been so popular with filmmakers What challenges have they had to meet What ideologies do their adaptations serve Madame Bovary at the Movies seeks to answer these questions avoiding value judgments based on the notion of fidelity to the novel In depth analyses are reserved for the studio films of Renoir Minnelli and Chabrol and the small screen adaptation of Fywell As the first book length examination of the Madame Bovary adaptations this volume in addition to its pedagogical applications will be a useful reference for scholars of literature and film and for those interested in the burgeoning field of adaptation studies The author of A Woman's Revenge The Chronology of Dispossession in Guy de Maupassant's Fiction French Forum Monographs 1986 and Medical Examinations Dissecting the Doctor in French Narrative Prose 1857-1894 University of Nebraska Press 2000 Mary Donaldson Evans is Elias Ahuja Professor of Foreign Languages and Literatures at the University of Delaware A Companion to Jean Renoir Alastair Phillips, Ginette

Vincendeau, 2013-04-11 A Companion to Jean Renoir An extraordinary collection of essays that more than fulfills the aims of its editors Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau The essays offer exciting original work from younger scholars as well as long established authorities all of which offer invaluable insights into the films writings and life of Jean Renoir Receiving particular attention are questions about the singularity or multiplicity of what the editors call the many Renoirs French

American Indian even transnational especially from the early 1930s through the early 1960s Whether mining relatively unexplored archive materials deploying newly current methodological approaches interrogating one of a wide range of topics and issues or engaging in close textual analysis the contributors construct a tantalizing series of innovative road maps for future researchers to pursue Richard Abel University of Michigan Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau have brought together essays that bring new perspectives to both the best known and the lesser known of Renoir's films Both French cinema specialists and viewers new to Renoir's work will find much of interest in this outstanding collection Judith Mayne Ohio State University Dubbed simply the best director by François Truffaut Jean Renoir is a towering figure in world film history This exhaustive survey of his work and life features a comprehensive analysis of his films from the multiple critical perspectives of the world's leading Renoir scholars Renoir's career spanned four decades and four countries and included an extraordinary body of films some of which La Grande illusion 1937 and La Règle du jeu 1939 are universally recognized masterpieces Fathered by the celebrated painter Pierre Auguste Renoir the filmmaker lived through much of the twentieth century beginning his career in the silent era and ending it in full Technicolor His films are notable for their paradoxical combination of strong internal coherence and thematic breadth and diversity and they provide a rich source for today's scholars of film history and French culture This handbook the largest volume on Renoir ever produced in the English language ranges in scope from extreme close up analysis of individual films to long shot explorations of his aesthetics and the social and cultural contexts in which he worked The most ambitious critical study of Renoir to date this book will appeal to film enthusiasts as much as scholars and specialists

Silent Renoir Colin Davis, 2021-02-17 Jean Renoir 1894-1979 is widely regarded as one of the most distinguished directors in the history of world cinema In the 1930s he directed a string of films which stretched the formal intellectual political and aesthetic boundaries of the art form including works such as Le Crime de Monsieur Lange La Grande Illusion La Bête humaine and La Règle du jeu However the great director's early work from the 1920s remains almost completely unknown even to film specialists If it is discussed at all it is often seen to be of interest only insofar as it anticipates themes and techniques perfected in the later masterpieces Renoir's films of the 1920s were sometimes unfinished commercially unsuccessful or unreleased at the time of their production This book argues that to regard them merely as prefigurations of later achievements entails a failure to view them on their own terms as searching unsettled experiments in the meaning and potential of film art

Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema Darren Waldron, 2009 Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema combines close film analysis with a small scale qualitative investigation of audience responses to examine images of queerness in contemporary French popular cinema and their reception Through its blending of the textual and the empirical this book provides a unique insight into the ways in which sexuality and gender are represented on the cinema screen as well as the spectator reactions they elicit Since the mid 1990s depictions of lesbians gay men and queer forms of sexual desire and identity have shifted to the mainstream of French cinematographic representation as evidenced by the box office success of a series of highly commercial comic films including Gazon maudit Josiane Balasko 1995 Pdale douce Gabriel Aghion 1996 Le Placard Francis Ver 2000 and Chouchou Merzak Allouache 2003 Alongside this commercial strand a series of small budget alternative comedies and other genre films have also challenged heteronormative conceptualizations of sexuality and gender Films such as Sitcom François Ozon 1998 L'Homme est une femme comme les autres Jean Jacques Zilbermann 1997 Pourquoi pas moi Stéphane Giusti 1999 Dr le de Flix Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau 2000 and Les Chansons d'amour Christophe Honor 2007 portray desire as fluid and or gender as unfixed With their use of parody and their blending of comedy with the musical melodrama romance or road movie these and other similar films have resonated with a burgeoning viewing public tired of having to seek queerness in connotation of appropriating marginal characters in ostensibly straight narratives and of tragedy and trauma as the principal modes of representation and spectator address
