Machina Ex Deo Lynn Townsend White, 1968 Machina Ex Deo Lynn Townsend White, 1968 Machina Ex Deo: Essays in the Dynamism of Western Culture Lynn White (ifj.), 1968 The Colonizer's Model of the World J. M. Blaut, 2012-07-23 This influential book challenges one of the most pervasive and powerful beliefs of our time that Europe rose to modernity and world dominance due to unique qualities of race environment culture mind or spirit and that progress for the rest of the world resulted from the diffusion of European civilization J M Blaut persuasively argues that this doctrine is not grounded in the facts of history and geography but in the ideology of colonialism Blaut traces the colonizer s model of the world from its 16th century origins to its present form in theories of economic development modernization and new world order The Postmodern Adventure Steven Best, Douglas Kellner, 2020-12-18 This compelling book explores the challenges to theory politics and human identity that we face on the threshold of the third millennium It follows on the successor of Best and Kellner s two previous books Postmodern Theory acclaimed as the best critical introduction to the field and The Postmodern Turn which provides a powerful mapping of postmodern developments developments in the arts politics science and theory In The Postmodern Adventure Best and Kellner analyze a broad array of literary cultural and political phenomena from fiction film science and the Internet to globalization and the rise of a transnational image culture Confronting Environments James G. Carrier, 2004-10-17 6 x 9 A Liberal Vocationalism John Brennan, Harold Silver, 2002-11-01 Aims to rescue a usable interpretation of the vocational theory in higher education by describing the historical and policy frameworks of the debate Feminism in Twentieth-Century Science, Technology, and Medicine Angela N. H. Creager, Elizabeth Lunbeck, Londa Schiebinger, 2001-11 What useful changes has feminism brought to science Feminists have enjoyed success in their efforts to open many fields to women as participants But the effects of feminism have not been restricted to altering employment and professional opportunities for women The essays in this volume explore how feminist theory has had a direct impact on research in the biological and social sciences in medicine and in technology often providing the impetus for fundamentally changing the theoretical underpinnings and practices of such research In archaeology evidence of women s hunting activities suggested by spears found in women s graves is no longer dismissed computer scientists have used feminist epistemologies for rethinking the human interface problems of our growing reliance on computers Attention to women s movements often tends to reinforce a presumption that feminism changes institutions through critique from without This volume reveals the potent but not always visible transformations feminism has brought to science technology and medicine from within Contributors Ruth Schwartz Cowan Linda Marie Fedigan Scott Gilbert Evelyn M Hammonds Evelyn Fox Keller Pamela E Mack Michael S Mahoney Emily Martin Ruth Oldenziel Nelly Oudshoorn Carroll Pursell Karen Rader Alison Wylie Key Methods in Geography Nicholas Clifford, Shaun French, Gill Valentine, 2010-05-19 Its range is far broader than the majority of methods texts being concerned with both human and physical geography Given

Religion in the History of the Medieval West John Van Engen, 2023-05-31 These ten essays by John Van Engen situate religion in the history of medieval Western Europe as an unavoidable presence in everyday life as a conceptual framework for social and political life as a force integral to its historical dynamics Four of the essays are bibliographical and retrospective in nature reviewing the field broadly but also pointing toward a more dialectical approach to understanding the interaction of religion and society in the European middle ages Other studies deal with large topics usually subsumed under the abstract term Christianization They grapple with learned sources as well as those associated with popular religion and show what can be gained from an imaginative use of all that lawyers and theologians said about religion in their society The essays finally look for the quality and dynamic of change even inventiveness released by religious action and conviction in medieval European society Humanities ,1970

Humanities National Endowment for the Humanities, 1969 The Cultural Context of Medieval Learning J.E. Murdoch, E.D. Sylla, 2012-12-06 Proceedings of the First International Colloquium on Philosophy Science and Technology in the Middle Ages September 1973 Farewell to the Horse: A Cultural History Ulrich Raulff, 2018-02-13 A surprising lively and erudite history of horse and man for readers of The Invention of Nature and The Soul of an Octopus Horses and humans share an ancient profoundly complex relationship Once our most indispensable companions horses were for millennia essential in helping build our cities farms and industries But during the twentieth century in an increasingly mechanized society they began to disappear from human history In this esoteric and rich tribute award winning historian Ulrich Raulff chronicles the dramatic story of this most spectacular creature thoroughly examining how they've been muses and brothers in arms neglected and sacrificed in war yet memorialized in paintings sculpture and novels and ultimately marginalized on racetracks and in pony clubs Elegiac and Absorbing Farewell to the Horse paints a stunning panorama of a world shaped by hooves and the imprint left on humankind A beautiful and thoughtful exploration Farewell to the Horse is a grown up but also lyrical and creative history book and I very much enjoyed it James Rebanks author of the New York Times bestseller The Shepherd's Life

Environment and Society Paul Robbins, John G. Hintz, Sarah A. Moore, 2013-12-16 Substantially updated for the second edition this engaging and innovative introduction to the environment and society uses key theoretical approaches to explore familiar objects Features substantial revisions and updates for the second edition including new chapters on E waste mosquitoes and uranium improved maps and graphics new exercises shorter theory chapters and refocused sections on environmental solutions Discusses topics such as population and scarcity commodities environmental ethics risks and hazards and political economy and applies them to objects like bottled water tuna and trees Accessible for students and accompanied by in book and online resources including exercises and boxed discussions an online test bank notes suggested reading and website links for enhanced understanding Offers additional online support for instructors including suggested teaching models PowerPoint slides for each chapter with full color graphics and supplementary images and teaching material

Capitalism and Modernity Jack Goody, 2013-05-02 This important new book investigates how the West attained its current position of economic and social advantage In an incisive historical analysis Jack Goody examines when and why Europe and Anglo America started to outstrip all other continents in socio economic growth Drawing on non Western examples of economic and technical progress Goody challenges assumptions about long term European supremacy of a cultural kind as was a feature of many theories current in social science He argues that the divergence came with the Industrial Revolution and that the earlier bourgeois revolution of the sixteenth century was but one among many Eurasia wide expressions of developing mercantile and manufacturing activity This original book casts new light on the history of capitalism industrialization and modernity and will be essential reading for all those interested in the great debate about the economic rise of the West Environment Glenn

Adelson,James Engell,Kevin P. Van Anglen,Brent Ranalli,2008-01-01 This major anthology is the first to apply a fully interdisciplinary approach to environmental studies A comprehensive guide to environmental literacy the book demonstrates how the sciences social sciences and humanities all contribute to understanding our interrelationships with the natural world Though not specialized Environment is a book that even specialists can learn from Ten innovative case studies climate shock species endangerment nuclear power biotechnology sustainable development deforestation environmental security globalization wilderness and the urban environment are followed by readings from specific disciplines These can be integrated with the case studies to shape individual interests and teaching strategies The volume presents an imaginative array of texts from scientific papers to poetry legal decisions to historical accounts personal essays to economic analysis Taken together these selections provide a balanced authoritative and up to date treatment of key issues in environmental studies Divinanimality Stephen D. Moore,2014-09-15 A turn to the animal is underway in the humanities most obviously in such fields as philosophy literary studies cultural studies and religious studies One important catalyst for this development has been the remarkable body of animal theory issuing from such thinkers as Jacques Derrida and Donna Haraway What might the resulting interdisciplinary field commonly termed animality studies mean for theology biblical studies and other cognate disciplines Is it possible to move from animal theory to creaturely theology This volume is the first full length attempt to grapple centrally with these questions It attempts to triangulate philosophical and theoretical reflections on animality and humanity with theological reflections on divinity If the animal human distinction is being rethought and retheorized as never before then the animal human divine distinctions need to be rethought retheorized and retheologized along with it This is the task that the multidisciplinary team of theologians biblical scholars philosophers and historians assembled in this volume collectively undertakes They do so frequently with recourse to Derrida s animal philosophy and also with recourse to an eclectic range of other relevant thinkers such as Haraway Giorgio Agamben Emmanuel Levinas Gloria Anzaldua Helene Cixous A N Whitehead and Lynn White Jr The result is a volume that will be essential reading for religious studies audiences interested in ecological issues animality studies and posthumanism as well as for animality studies audiences interested in how constructions of the divine have informed constructions of the nonhuman animal through history
