Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People, 1906      The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine
Josiah Gilbert Holland, Richard Watson Gilder, 1906      Viewing Photography in Post-Dictatorship Latin America David Rojinsky, 2022-11-30 This book examines the archival aesthetic of mourning and memory developed by Latin American artists and photographers between 1997 2016 Particular attention is paid to how photographs of the assassinated or disappeared political dissident of the 1970s and 1980s as found in family albums and in official archives were not only re imagined as conduits for private mourning but also became allegories of social trauma and the struggle against socio political amnesia Memorials art installations photo essays street projections and documentary films are all considered as media for the reframing of these archival images from the era of the Cold War dictatorships in Argentina Chile Guatemala and Uruguay While the turn of the millennium was supposedly marked by the end of history and with the advent of digital technologies by the end of photography these works served to interrupt and hence belie the dominant narrative on both counts Indeed the book s overarching contention is that the viewer s affective identification with distant suffering when engaging these artworks is equally interrupted instead the viewer is invited to apprehend memorial images as emblems of national and international histories of ideological struggle      Photographs 1925-1933 Aenne Biermann, 1988      Popular Photography , 1982-10      After Photography Fred Ritchin, 2009 Ritchin one of the most influential commentators on photography offers a fascinating look at the perils and possibilities of photography in a digital age 50 color illustrations      Pictures and Progress Maurice O. Wallace, Shawn Michelle Smith, 2012-06-19 Pictures and Progress explores how during the nineteenth century and the early twentieth prominent African American intellectuals and activists understood photography s power to shape perceptions about race and employed the new medium in their quest for social and political justice They sought both to counter widely circulating racist imagery and to use self representation as a means of empowerment In this collection of essays scholars from various disciplines consider figures including Frederick Douglass Sojourner Truth Ida B Wells Paul Laurence Dunbar and W E B Du Bois as important and innovative theorists and practitioners of photography In addition brief interpretive essays or snapshots highlight and analyze the work of four early African American photographers Featuring more than seventy images Pictures and Progress brings to light the wide ranging practices of early African American photography as well as the effects of photography on racialized thinking Contributors Michael A Chaney Cheryl Finley P Gabrielle Foreman Ginger Hill Leigh Raiford Augusta Rohrbach Ray Sapiirstein Suzanne N Schneider Shawn Michelle Smith
