

The background of the slide is a light blue gradient with faint, artistic illustrations of celestial objects. In the top left, there is a sun with a crescent moon in front of it. To the right of the sun is a bright yellow circle. Further right is a ringed planet, similar to Saturn. In the top right corner, there are several overlapping, translucent, circular shapes that look like clouds or nebulae. Scattered throughout the background are small, faint stars and other celestial motifs.
