Spiritual Care in Everyday Nursing Practice Janice Clarke, 2013-05-31 As changes in technology policy and management put an increasing emphasis on processes and procedures in nursing and health care how do we continue to make room for compassion the ancient human value that calls most nurses to the profession In Spiritual Care in Everyday Nursing Practice Janice Clarke argues that it is compassionate care of the whole person body and soul which is at the heart of nursing practice that values the individual and respects their dignity Rather than seeing spiritual care as an addition to what nurses already do this new approach considers it a natural part of compassionate care which doesn't present the nurse with an extra ambiguous burden to deal with Providing a brief historical introduction to the concept of spirituality Clarke examines the ways in which our spiritual life a source of strength and meaning can be influenced by factors such as age illness and suffering and mental illness as well as our religious beliefs Providing a practical guide to talking about and working with spirituality she explores how nurses might imbue all their practice including the physical aspects of care from use of touch to helping patients to move bathe and eat with an attention to spiritual needs A timely accessible and practical introduction to a concept that is under explored in contemporary nursing literature this book will be of great value to students and professionals alike Religion: A Clinical Guide for Nurses Elizabeth Johnston Taylor, 2012-03-07 Named a 2012 PROSE Award Honorable Mention in the Nursing views on health and suffering explanations for disease beliefs and practices related to birthing childrearing and dying healing rituals corporate religious resources for the sick and more Prefacing this information are chapters discussing clinical aspects of addressing religion at the bedside These include strategies for sensitive and respectful communication about religion with patients assessing a patient's religious beliefs supporting bedside rituals that are part of a patient's religion and understanding ethical and legal considerations The book also provides a comprehensive list of additional resources Key Features Provides quick access to information about the 20 plus families of religions most prevalent among Americans and others in English speaking First World countries Presents practical and concise information about various religions in a succinct table format Offers detailed communication techniques for clinicians who are uncomfortable discussing religion with patients Includes techniques for self assessment of religious views and values and how these can affect care Presents legal and ethical aspects of addressing religiosity in patient care Enhancing Nurses' and Midwives' Competence in Providing Spiritual Care Wilfred McSherry, Adam Boughey, Josephine Attard, 2021-05-18 This book is the first of its kind addressing key issues in the teaching and learning of spirituality and spiritual care in the context of nursing and midwifery practice The content is based on the outcomes of a European wide project EPICC that brought together leading nursing and midwifery educators and practitioners from 21 countries It highlights the importance of ensuring student nurses and midwives receive sufficient educational preparation to provide spiritual person centred care In turn the book puts forward an innovative and creative approach to the teaching of spiritual person centred care based on an evaluation of best practice across Europe The content and activities presented will enable nursing and midwifery educators to acquire new knowledge skills for learning about and teaching on the personal religious and spiritual aspects of person centred care Both interactive and engaging it will equip nursing and midwifery students to holistically address the needs of the people they care for The book has the potential to transform the nursing and midwifery workforce of the future by ensuring they are prepared to face the global challenges that are impacting international nursing and midwifery practice
