Self Embodiment Of God:

The Self-embodiment of God Thomas J. J. Altizer, 1977 The Self-Embodiment of God Thomas J. Altizer, 1987-08-14
Traces the interior evolutionary movement of biblical moments and movements of Genesis Exodus Judgement Incarnation and Apocalypse by meditating on speech and silence in the biblical text of the Old Testament or Torah This profoundly moving meditation by a Christian dialectical theologian finds a home in the classical academic literature of Judaism by virtue of the author's emphasis on the search for words to express man's encounter with the living God Jacob Neusner Series Editor in his new preface states that Judaism in the Torah claims to possess these words He considers Altizer's work to be a continuation of the legacy of Abraham Joshua Heschel Originally published by Harper Row in 1977 this edition contains a new introduction by the author The Autism of Gxd Ruth M. Dunster, 2022-12-02 The Autism of Gxd An Atheological Love Story is truly a love story the story of Ruth Dunster's autistic search for an authentic personal and theological Gxd In this it resembles Augustine's Confessions as a theological autobiography It becomes atheological however as Dunster reckons with what Denys Turner terms The Darkness of God This awareness leads her through the poetry of Medieval mystics to the mythic death of God theology of Thomas J J Altizer The search for faith is nonetheless very real in this strange territory Dunster hears her autistic Gxd speaking in art poetry novels and music and this further leads her into the territory of Literature Theology and the Arts where in Blanchot's words the answer is the poem's absence Indeed Dunster calls the book a strange poem or even a hymn Weaving an autistic mythology out of a rigorous survey of clinical autism this book abounds in challenge and paradox It offers a fascinating view into how an autistic poet becomes a theologian and what more mainstream theologies might learn from this disabled Gxd Kierkegaard and the Self Before God Simon D. Podmore, 2011-02 Simon D Podmore claims that becoming a self before God is both a divine gift and an anxious obligation Before we can know God or ourselves we must come to a moment of recognition How this comes to be as well as the terms of such acknowledgment are worked out in Podmore's powerful new reading of Kierkegaard As he gives full consideration to Kierkegaard's writings Podmore explores themes such as despair anxiety melancholy and spiritual trial and how they are broken by the triumph of faith forgiveness and the love of God He confronts the abyss between the self and the divine in order to understand how we can come to know ourselves in relation to a God who is apparently so wholly Other Thinking through the Death of God Lissa McCullough, Brian Schroeder, 2012-02-01 The leading exponent of the death of God theology of the 1960s Thomas J J Altizer created a media sensation at the time and defined a major new direction in philosophical theology Altizer has continued to refine his thought throughout his career and his systematic theological work has achieved its prime as shown in this collaborative critical response to his thought This book is also the first collection of its kind to appear in nearly thirty years and thus the first to deal with the most sophisticated period of his work A response from Altizer is included along with a comprehensive bibliography of his work Self Enlightenment Dr.B.N.Ganesh M.D.S, 2021-03-14

This book is an inner journey to the self and reveals the true nature. It answers to your all miseries happening in your life. This book concludes that because of ignorance of knowledge the cause of the sufferings is You and the solution is You. This book is the essence of Vedantic teachings like Bhagavad Gita, Brahma sutra, Major Upanishads, Tattva bodha, Atma bodha, Panchadasee etc. Searching for happiness, Peace is the main moto for all humans and none of the materialistic object will gratify for none so still people are searching for it in another and goes on. The real happiness and peace are present inside in us but we are searching it outside and this book clears it. By Self Enlightenment and Spiritual growth we can attain the highest goal in our Life, Salvation or Freedom. OM TAT SAT Sufi Women, Embodiment, and the 'Self' Jamila

Rodrigues, 2022-12-30 This book is an ethnographic case study of Sufi ritual practice and embodied experience amongst female members of the Naqshbandi community. Drawing on fieldwork in Cape Town, South Africa and Lefke, Cyprus, 2013-2014, the author examines women's experiences within a particular performance of Sufi tradition. The focus is on the ritual named hadra, involving the recital of sacred texts, music, and body movement, where the goal is for the individual to reach a state of intimacy with God. The volume considers Sufi practice as a form of embodied cultural behavior, religious identity, and selfhood construction. It explains how Muslim women's participation in hadra ritual life reflects religious and cultural ideas about the body, the body's movement, and embodied selfhood expression within the ritual experience. Sufi Women: Ritual Embodiment and the Self engages with studies in Sufism, symbolic anthropology, ethnography, dance, and somatic studies. Contributing to discussions of religion, gender, and the body, the book will be of interest to scholars from anthropology, sociology, religious ritual studies, Sufism, and gender studies and performance studies. Knowledge of the Self-Revealing God in the Thought of Thomas Forsyth Torrance

John Douglas Morrison, 2005-02-07 This work examines Thomas Forsyth Torrance's concern for the modern re-entrenchment of dualism as it has negatively affected the Christian faith and the realist knowledge of God in Christ. Additionally, an analysis is made of Torrance's program to faithfully restore theological thinking, theological science, and true objectivity out of the Christocentric Trinitarian self-disclosure of God via the modern return to critical realist epistemology in the physical sciences, e.g. Einstein, Polanyi. The study concludes with a critical examination of the adequacy and completeness of Torrance's endeavor, the problem of residual dualism in the light of his own theological and redemptive concerns. Incarnate Earth Matthew Eaton, 2023-03-10

Incarnate Earth reimagines the doctrine of Incarnation by extending the unity between Creator and creation beyond Jesus to the entire world. In dialogue with contemporary theologies of deep incarnation and the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas, the author argues that the face of Christ is encountered in the cruciform demand for justice embodied in the creaturely finitude and vulnerability that grounds ethics. Central to this vision is a recognition that the religious role functions at the heart of Jesus' life: the revelation of God and the redemption of the world are performed throughout the physical world, irreducible to humanity or one heroic representative of the species. Thus, the human encounters the divine Christ in and as the face of any vulnerable thing, animal vegetal elemental or otherwise not as a transcendent being mediated through humanity The radical nature of this reimagination necessitates renewed discussions of ecological and animal ethics calling for compassionate care for all vulnerable bodies insofar as this is possible It will be of interest to scholars of Christian theology and the philosophy of religion particularly those focused on ecotheology religious naturalism and environmental ethics Sacred Modes of Being in a Postsecular World Andrew W. Hass, 2021-09-16 How do we talk meaningfully about the sacred in contexts where conventional religious expression has so often lost its power Inspired by the influential work of David Jasper this important volume builds on his thinking to identify sacrality in a world where the old religious and secular debates have exhausted themselves and theology struggles for a new language in their wake Distinguished writers explore here the idea of the sacred as one that exists paradoxically in a space that is both possible and impossible profoundly theological on the one hand but also deeply this worldly and irreligious on the other This is a sacredness that is simultaneously present and absent one which encompasses as Jasper himself characterises it the impossible possibility of an absolute vision The book teaches us that the sacred assumes a renewed potency when fully engaged with the creativity that happens across religion literature philosophy and the arts Divine Revelation Susan G. Shumsky, 1996-08-05 INCREASE YOUR SPIRITUAL STRENGTH AWAKEN YOUR HIDDEN POTENTIAL AND FULFILL YOUR DESTINY Sushan Shumsky has taught thousands how to develop a deep spiritual connection within themselves by learning to listen to and trust the still small voice within the voice that embodies the wisdom needed to set a clear direction in life and make the biggest decisions with peaceful confidence In Divine Revelation she presents her proven techniques for opening your heart mind and spirit to the riches of inner divine contact and for learning how to Augment your innate intuitive abilities Identify the source of intuitive messages and test their authenticity Overcome resistance to divine contact by breaking through ego barriers Attain mastery in the practice of meditation Become self reliant in solving personal problems and charting a course for the future Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson Callahan, 2013-06-20 This title tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of religion It explores such themes as the contexts in which religious leaders move leadership in communities of faith leadership as taught in theological education and training religious leadership impacting social change and social justice and more Topics are examined from multiple perspectives traditions and faiths Transcendence and Spatiality of the Triune Creator Chan Ho Park, 2005 Since Augustine many philosophers and theologians have discussed the relation of God to time whereas the relation between God and space has been rarely discussed This book deals with the relationship of God to space Divine transcendence is one important aspect of the Christian God However God is also immanent in the world of space and time The author investigates the concept of divine spatiality and presents case studies of three modern theologians Torrance Pannenberg and Moltmann He also analyses divine spatiality by using Dyrness's three categories relationship agency and embodiment The Ministry of the Word, Vol. 26, No. 09 Witness Lee, 2022-12-03 This issue of The Ministry of the Word contains Messages 25 through 32

The Self-Donation of God Jack D. Kilcrease, 2013-03-20 In The Self Donation of God Jack Kilcrease argues that the speech act of promise is always an act of self donation A person who unilaterally promises to another is bound to take a particular series of actions to fulfill that promise Being that creation is grounded in God's promising speech the divine human relationship is fundamentally one of divine self donation and human receptivity Sin disrupts this relationship and therefore redemption is constituted by a reassertion of divine promise of salvation in the face of the condemnation of the law Gen 3:15 As a new and effective word of grace the promise of a savior begins the process of redemption within which God speaks forth a new narrative of creation In this new narrative God gives himself in an even deeper manner to humanity By donating himself through a promise first to the protological humanity and then to Israel he binds himself to them At the end of this history of self binding God in Christ enters into the condemnation of the law neutralizes it in the cross and brings about a new creation through his omnipotent word of promise actualized in the resurrection

Incarnation Niels Henrik Gregersen, 2015-07-01 Deeply engaged with both the tradition and the contemporary world the book leads readers to an understanding of deep incarnation interpreting this central Christian idea to address the needs of the entire created order and allows Christology to be relevant and meaningful when responding to the challenges of scientific cosmology and of global religious pluralism

Humanism and the Humanities in the Twenty-first Century William S. Haney, Peter Malekin, 2001 The book raises questions about the underlying paradigms of contemporary learning and social thinking including the nature of consciousness and the mind the purpose and conduct of education the role of science and scientific methodologies the place of art and literature or relationship to the environment our concepts of spirituality our attitudes to the past and also what we are doing to our own future

God in Sound and Silence Danielle Anne Lynch, 2018-06-22 Music by its indeterminate levels of meaning poses a necessary challenge to a theology bound up in words Its distinctive nature as temporal and embodied allows a unique point of access to theological understanding Yet music does not exist in a cultural vacuum conveying universal truths but is a part of the complex nature of human lives This understanding of music as theology stems from a conviction that music is a theological means of knowing knowing something indeterminate yet meaningful This is an exploration of the means by which music might say something otherwise unsayable and in doing so allow for an encounter with the mystery of God Godhead and the Nothing Thomas J. J. Altizer, 2003-07-17 An eminent theologian argues that nothingness is necessary in order to fully actualize the Godhead
