Wilson,2013-01-31 Spiritualism and mediumship are often regarded as the product of lingering superstition in the Victorian era and as having limited relevance in modern Anglo American society Scholarship to date which has considered Spiritualism as a distinct religious tradition has focussed on analysing the phenomenon in terms of spirit possession only This volume analyses the development of shamanism communication with the spiritual world as a concept within North American English speaking scholarship with particular focus on Mircea Eliade s influential cross cultural presentation of shamanism By re examining the work of Sergei Shirokogoroff one of Eliade s principal sources the traditional Evenki shamanic apprenticeship is compared and identified with the new Spiritualist apprenticeship The author demonstrates that Spiritualism is best understood as a traditional shamanism as distinct from contemporary appropriations or neo shamanisms He argues that shamanism is the outcome of an apprenticeship in the management of psychic experiences and which follows the same pattern as that of the apprentice medium In doing so the author offers fresh insights into the mechanisms that are key to sustaining mediumship as a social institution

Gender and Power in Contemporary Spirituality Anna Fedele,Kim Knibbe,2013-03-05 This book explores the entanglements of gender and power in spiritual practices and analyzes strategies used by spiritual practitioners to attain what to social scientists might seem an impossible goal creating spiritual communities without creating gendered hierarchies What strategies do people within these networks use to attain gender equality and gendered empowerment How do they try to protect and develop individual freedom How do gender and power nevertheless play a role The chapters in this book together and separately demonstrate that in order to understand contemporary spirituality the analytical lenses of gender and power are essential Furthermore they show that it is not possible to make a clear distinction between established religions and contemporary spirituality the two sometimes overlap and at other times spirituality distances itself from religion while reproducing some of its underlying interpretative frameworks This book does not take the discourses of spiritual practitioners for granted yet recognizes the reflexivity of spiritual practitioners and the reciprocal relationship between spirituality and disciplines such as anthropology The ethnographic descriptions of lived spirituality included in this volume span a wide range of countries from Portugal Italy and the Netherlands to Mexico and Israel sociologically in its religious New Age and millenarian contexts Nicholas Campion considers astrology's relation to modernity and draws on extensive fieldwork and interviews with leading modern astrologers to present an invaluable contribution to our understanding of the origins and nature of New Age ideology This book challenges the notion that astrology is either marginal or a feature of postmodernism Concluding that astrology is more popular than the usual figures suggest Campion argues that modern astrology is largely shaped by New Age thought influenced by the European Millenarian tradition that it can be seen as an heir to classical Gnosticism and is part of the vernacular religion of the modern west
