Contemporary Sino-French Cinemas Michelle E. Bloom, 2017-11-30 Transnational cinemas are eclipsing national cinemas in the contemporary world and Sino French films exemplify this phenomenon through the cinematic coupling of the Sinophone and the Francophone linking France not just with the Chinese mainland but also with the rest of the Chinese speaking world Sinophone directors most often reach out to French cinema by referencing and adapting it They set their films in Paris and metropolitan France cast French actors and sometimes use French dialogue even when the directors themselves don't understand it They tend to view France as mysterious sexy and sophisticated just as the French see China and Taiwan as exotic As Michelle E Bloom makes clear many films move past a simplistic opposition between East and West and beyond Orientalist and Occidentalist cross cultural interplay Bloom focuses on films that have appeared since 2000 such as Tsai Ming-liang's What Time Is It There Hou Hsiao-hsien's Flight of the Red Balloon and Dai Sijie's Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress She views the work of these well known directors through a Sino French optic applying the tropes of métissage or biraciality intertextuality adaptation and remake translation and imitation to shed new light on their work She also calls attention to important lesser studied films Taiwanese director Cheng Yu-chieh's Yang Yang which depicts the up and coming Taiwanese star Sandrine Pinna as a mixed race beauty and Emily Tang Xiaobai's debut film Conjugation which contrasts Paris and post Tiananmen Square Beijing the one an incarnation of liberty the other a place of entrapment Bloom's insightful analysis also probes what such films reveal about their Taiwanese and Chinese creators Scholars have long studied Sino French literature but this inaugural full length

Architecture and the Landscape of Modernity in China before 1949 Edward Denison,2017-02-17 This book explores China's encounter with architecture and modernity in the tumultuous epoch before Communism an encounter that was mediated not by a singular notion of modernism emanating from the west but that was uniquely multifarious deriving from a variety of sources both from the west and importantly from the east The heterogeneous origins of modernity in China are what make its experience distinctive and its architectural encounters exceptional These experiences are investigated through a re-evaluation of established knowledge of the subject within the wider landscape of modern art practices in China The study draws on original archival and photographic material from different artistic genres and architecturally concentrates on China's engagement with the west through the treaty ports and leased territories the emergence of architecture as a profession in China and Japan's omnipresence not least in Manchuria which reached its apogee in the puppet state of Manchukuo The study's geographically temporally and architecturally inclusive approach framed by the concept of multiple modernities questions the application of conventional theories of modernity or post colonialism to the Chinese situation By challenging conventional modernist historiography that has marginalised the experiences of the west's other for much of the last century this book proposes different ways of grappling with and comprehending the distinction and complexity of China's experiences and its encounter with architectural modernity
