Dimitar Gueorguiev, 2021-10-14 Retrofitting Leninism explains through the lens of China how open governance and modern information technology come together to sustain a tightly controlled but socially responsive system of authoritarianism When closed authoritarian regimes reform and open up they often fail most eventually breakdown The People's Republic of China stands as a notable exception How has the ruling Chinese Communist Party maintained power throughout decades of reform and rapid development Drawing inspiration from the CCP's Leninist origins Dimitar Gueorguiev offers a novel and empirically grounded explanation The key to the CCP's staying power he argues is its ability to integrate authoritarian control with social inclusion a combination that is being facilitated by modern telecommunications technology Relying on statistical data media reports and a series of original opinion polls Gueorguiev explores how public input feeds into political oversight and policy planning To unpack how public preferences are acquired processed and prioritized he analyses bottom up representation and coordination in local Chinese legislatures Finally to evaluate the impact of inclusion he shows that public engagement contributes to both policy stability and public satisfaction Although public inclusion is instrumental to the CCP's hold on power Gueorguiev underscores that inclusive authoritarianism greatly depends on the voluntary participation of Chinese citizens which is far from guaranteed A trenchant exploration of the Leninist model today Retrofitting Leninism will reshape our understanding of the authoritarian approach to government and its prospects for the future Lost in Globalization Leonardo Citterio, Joseph Di Pasquale, 2015 Residential construction best expresses the evolution of the Chinese lifestyle over the years and is one of the major problems generated by the new massive Chinese urbanization The city main structure is easily recognizable a large sprawl of buildings almost placed without a hierarchical disposition In the various lots are easily identifiable several patterns Only with the typologies study can be possible understand the relationship between the various political events the lifestyles and the form The contrast in morphology between the different prototypes seem to be a sudden mutation but actually suggest a gradual housing typological evolution lasting over a century Revolutionary Transformations Anja Blanke, Julia C. Beginning with a retrospective of the past century this book offers a panoramic picture of Chinese comparative literature from its nascence in the early 1920s through its evolution in the 1980s to the new development at the turn of the century ending with a prospective look at the future of comparative literature in the 21st century. The articles presented here reveal the author's deep understandings of the literature and culture of her own country and those of other countries. A rich array of case studies and in-depth theorizing make it an extremely interesting and enlightening read. Prof. Daiyun Yue is a prominent professor at Peking University and a leading figure in Chinese comparative literature. She has served as Head of the Institute for Comparative Literature and Cultural Studies, PKU, 1984-1998 and the third president of the Chinese Comparative Literature Association, 1989-2014. Further, she is the founder of Dialogue Transcultural, a much acclaimed journal of comparative literature. Prof. Yue approaches outstanding literature as a bridge to link people of different cultural traditions. The reason why interdisciplinary literary research between two alien cultures is possible is because dialog between alien cultures along with exchange and understanding is more readily realized through literature. Herein lies the value of comparative literature. Shanghai's Dancing World Andrew Field, 2010

It was thanks to its cabarets that Old Shanghai was called the Paris of the Orient. No one has studied the rise and fall of those cabarets more extensively than Andrew Field. His book is packed with fascinating information and attests on every page to his understanding of Shanghai's history. LYNN PAN, author of Sons of the Yellow Emperor 黄帝的子孙, 1997. Quarry Magazine Quarry Press Staff, 1994. The Cambridge Global History of Fashion: Volume 2 Christopher Breward, Beverly Lemire, Giorgio Riello, 2023-08-17

Volume II surveys the history of fashion from the nineteenth century to the present day. Covering the period beginning with mass industry and ending with calls for sustainability, this volume challenges the meaning of modernity and modernism from a global perspective and reflects on important scholarship that has changed our understanding of the relationship between fashion and colonialism. Empires shifted and new powers rose with fashion marking and contending with this change. The volume concludes with a critical view of fashion and globalisation and explores the deep connections between the fashion industry, the global economy and the politics of production and wearing in the contemporary world.

Waterfronts Revisited Heleni Porfyriou, Marichela Sepe, 2016-08-05. Waterfronts Revisited addresses the historical evolution of the relationship between port and city and re-examines waterfront development by looking at the urban territory and historical city in their complexity and entirety. By identifying guiding values, urban patterns and typologies and local needs and experiences, cities can break the isolation of the harbor by reconnecting it to the urban structure, its functions spaces and forms Using the UNESCO recommendation for the Historic Urban Landscape as the guiding concept and a tool for managing urban preservation and change this collection of essays illustrates solutions to issues of globalisation commercialization of space and commoditisation of culture in waterfront development Through sixteen selected case studies Editors Heleni Porfyriou and Marichela Sepe offer planners and urban designers a broad spectrum of alternative solutions to waterfront regeneration interventions and redevelopments addressing sustainability regional cultural diversity and the debate between conservation and transformation

Transnational Representations James Wicks, 2014-11-01

Transnational Representations focuses on a neglected period in Taiwan film scholarship the golden age of the 1960s and 1970s which saw innovations in plot theme and genre as directors highlighted the complexities of Taiwan's position in the world Combining a concise overview of Taiwan film history with analysis of representative Taiwan films the book reveals the internal and external struggles Taiwan experienced in its search for global identity This cross disciplinary study adopts a transnational approach which presents Taiwan's film industry as one that is intertwined with that of mainland China challenging previous accounts that present the two industries as parallel yet separate The book also offers productive comparisons between Taiwan films and contemporary films elsewhere representing the politics of migration and between the antecedents of new cinema movements and Taiwan New Cinema of the 1980s James Wicks's book offers a most nuanced sensible and timely account of the 1960s to 1970s Taiwan films in terms of plot theme language and generic innovations It zooms in on works by such prominent directors as Li Xing Bai Jingrui Song Cunshou and others highlighting local regional and transnational flows while not losing sight of the complexities in the island state's identity and modernity formation processes Ping hui Liao University of California San Diego Wicks's engaging study forges a comparative approach to Taiwanese cinema that is enlivened and inspired by the possibility of close reading historical research and interviews Most importantly it draws attention to seminal films so rarely discussed in the English language Brian Hu artistic director of the San Diego Asian Film Festival
