Bombay Novels Mamta Mantri, 2019-01-15 Mumbai Bombay How do we explain this city and ourselves within it How do the city and the city dweller together allow for representations of urban life to arise in literature and the fine arts This book is an understanding of Mumbai both as an architectural and literary space through the lens of spatial criticism and the technique of flânerie As an icon of experiences Mumbai is felt through the simultaneous acts of walking observing remembering and articulating In analyzing four novels namely Baumgartner's Bombay Ravan and Eddie Shantaram and Baluta the book claims that the characters and their authors offer an alternative vision of the city as they also construct a transient place for themselves This act of flânerie is an act of transgression as it turns the outside into the inside changing public space into private space As the characters serve to disrupt meaning uncover hidden histories and expose power relations involved in the representation of place they actualize many possibilities and meanings Using the novel as a literary device the authors have told stories not only of the protagonist flâneur but also of people around them sometimes in detail sometimes in passing In contesting claiming and owning the lives the stories and the city the humane aspect is never forgotten

Shantaram Gregory David Roberts, 2006 Cuando llegué a Bombay no era más que un fugitivo sin identidad sin futuro sin esperanza Allí conocí el paraíso y el infierno el amor y el odio la pasión y la guerra Y se ganó un nombre otorgado con el corazón Shantaram aterrizó en Bombay huyendo de un pasado de crimen y droga perseguido por la policía tras su fuga de una prisión de máxima seguridad en Australia Y en sus barrios más miserables donde los extranjeros jamás se adentran donde solo el amor y la lealtad permiten la supervivencia su existencia cobró auténtico sentido y alcanzó una intensidad que no creía posible En las calles sucias y llenas de vida de Bombay aprendí el valor de la auténtica amistad junto a hombres alegres y sencillos como Prabaker y otros violentos duros y leales como Abdullah Conocí también el goce y el tormento de amar a una mujer excepcional Y con la misma fuerza sufrí el lado oscuro de la vida la tortura

y el horror en las cárceles indias la traición la muerte de los seres queridos Se hizo un nombre entre traficantes contrabandistas y falsificadores adoptó sus códigos de honor y forjó con ellos unos lazos que le llevaron hasta las montañas de Afganistán junto a los mujahidines que combatían a los soviéticos esta es la historia real de la transformación de un hombre que atraviesa todos los estadios del espíritu y todas las pruebas del cuerpo Y es también el relato de una aventura increíble en una ciudad terrible y fascinante a la vez en cuyas calles caóticas y abigarradas se esconden las verdades esenciales de la vida Una lectura sensacional Publishers Weekly Una primera impresión muestra que se trata de una brillante historia pero uno también se da cuenta rápidamente de que Roberts es un magnífico creador de personajes Booklist Una obra maestra erudita e íntima reflexiva y divertida con toda la fuerza y el ritmo de un buen thriller Daily Telegraph Una verdadera gigantesca saga London Daily Mail Un héroe brutal apasionado y romántico London Telegraph Una voz narrativa capaz de transmitir honestidad sensibilidad y dejar una profunda huella psicológica Australian Book Review day international conference held at the University of Northampton UK It contains the best of the papers presented by 45 delegates from 12 countries UK India USA Canada Italy France Ireland Australia Romania Japan Germany Portugal involving both established academics and new scholars The collection is divided into three parts Part 1 Medieval and Early Modern Cities Performance and Poetry Part 2 Defining Urban Space the Metropolis and the Provincial and Part 3 Modern and Postmodern Cities Marginal Urban Identities The chapters explore the nature of the modern city in literature history film and culture from its origins in the early modern period to post modern dislocations and considers the city as a context within which literature is created structured and inspired and as a space within which distinct voices and genres emerge Much interest has developed recently on the city and its contexts but there is a tendency to focus on London for example there is the journal Literary London Interdisciplinary Studies in the Representation of London and the annual Literary London

Conference a major conference that has run since 2002 This collection fills an important gap in the market by having a truly global focus Joan Fitzpatrick's The Idea of the City represents a fascinating snapshot of the current state of literary urban studies Conference proceedings can often seem diffuse or tokenistic but this collection offers unity on several levels For a start many of the contributors ask similar questions of their material approaching it with an informed awareness of the ways in which the city has been theorised as well as actually traversed from the medieval period to the present While one would expect work of this type and standard from established and widely published scholars such as Pamela Gilbert and Julian Wolfreys it is refreshing to see how new researchers are blending the cartographic with the psychological to raise important questions about the perception analysis and mythologisation of urban and metropolitan space The collection is impressively eclectic ranging from Petrarch's Avignon to modern Los Angeles and from 18th century Lichfield to operatic reimaginings of Venice As I said however the collection is unified at a deep level by the contributors shared interest in city writing and by their conviction that there is a complex relationship between space place and self This means that the book would be of use and interest to those working on individual writers including contemporary novelists such as Niall Griffiths on whom little has yet been published and in the more general areas of urban and cultural studies and critical theory The collection as a whole allows the reader to revisit the ideas of influential works from the previous decade such as Keith Tester's The Flâneur 1994 Sophie Watson and Katherine Gibson's Postmodern Cities and Spaces 1995 and Susana Onega and John Stotesbury's London in Literature Visionary Mappings of the Metropolis 2002 It is therefore both a useful round up of established ideas from various city centred disciplines and a starting point for the fresh consideration of enduringly suggestive material Dr Nick Freeman Loughborough University Author of Conceiving the City London Literature and Art 1870-1914 In this substantial volume the editor has assembled an international line up of scholars working on the city from the Renaissance to the present This is an important and timely work that has depth as well as breadth Interdisciplinary and cross period collections like this which straddle several historical periods run the risk of appealing only in part to coherent scholarly communities but Dr Fitzpatrick has structured the collection in a way which plays to the strength of critics working within particular periods while clearly displaying the latticework of links between the book's strongly marked sections There is an excellent balance between historical and theoretical readings between textual and contextual approaches and between interventions that are author or text based and those that deal with broader themes and issues The range of contributors is matched by the richness and variety of perspectives I would strongly recommend this book to students working in the early modern period and also to those interested in modern developments It is a comprehensive intelligently organized and richly researched volume that is likely to be well received well reviewed and well read I will certainly be ordering copies for my own University library and including it on reading lists for future courses Professor Willy Maley University of Glasgow

approach which raised questions and illustrated ideas that addressed the grounds and essence of human existence Among the questions were those that related to the essences of truth being human existence freedom and of love The major purpose of this book is the attempt to counter the expansive reign of the passion for the mediocre The authors hold that the widespread acceptance of mediocrity effaces all excellence degrades everyday human existence and ruins spiritual life The manner here of countering mediocrity is to present and carefully think about the thought provoking questions and enlightening ideas which existentialists brought up and studied The first section of this book looks at the relevance of three existentialist ideas for life in society These being beauty the revolt of the masses and friendship In the second section the book brings forth ideas that should enrich educational thought and enhance teaching The last part addresses learning as a personally enhancing process Rivca Gordon is an independent scholar who has co authored six books with Haim Gordon She has also published articles on existentialist philosophy and existentialist thinking in professional journals
