Addiction, Modernity, and the City Christopher B.R. Smith, 2015-11-19 Examining the interdependent nature of substance space and subjectivity this book constitutes an interdisciplinary analysis of the intoxication indigenous to what has been termed our narcotic modernity The first section Drug Culture demonstrates how the body of the addict and the social body of the city are both inscribed by controlled substance Positing addiction as a pathology out of place that is specific to the late capitalist urban landscape the second section Dope Sick conducts a critique of the prevailing pathology paradigm of addiction proposing in its place a theoretical reconceptualization of drug dependence in the terms of p re in scription Remapping the successive stages or phases of our narcotic modernity the third section Narco State delineates three primary eras of narcotic modernity including the contemporary city of safe supervised consumption Employing an experimental intra textual format the fourth section Brain Disease mimics the sense state or scape of intoxication accompanying each permutation of narcotic modernity in the interchangeable terms of drug dream and or disease Tracing the parallel evolution of addiction the late capitalist cityscape and the pathological project of modernity the four parts of this book thus together constitute a users guide to urban space
