plywood with fiberglass then spray painted it with countless layers of automotive paints and Irwin spray painted discs of hammered aluminum or vacuum formed plastics The detailed study of each artist s work is presented in the context of the emergence of modern art in Los Angeles the burgeoning mid twentieth century gallery scene and the light infused LA cityscape Initially undertaken as part of the Pacific Standard Time Art in L A 1945 1980 initiative this volume combines technical art history and scientific analysis to investigate conservation issues associated with the work of these artists which are often emblematic of issues in the conservation of contemporary art in general Library of Congress Subject

Greenberg,2000-10-19 Thanks to his unsurpassed eye and his fearless willingness to take a stand Clement Greenberg 1909 1994 became one of the giants of 20th century art criticism a writer who set the terms of critical discourse from the moment he burst onto the scene with his seminal essays Avant Garde and Kitsch 1939 and Towards a Newer Laocoon 1940 In this work which gathers previously uncollected essays and a series of seminars delivered at Bennington in 1971 Greenberg provides his most expansive statement of his views on taste and quality in art arguing for an esthetic that flies in the face of current art world fashions Greenberg insists despite the attempts from Marcel Duchamp onwards to escape the jurisdiction of taste by producing an art so disjunctive that it cannot be judged that taste is inexorable He argues that standards of quality in art the artist s responsibility to seek out the hardest demands of a medium and the critic s responsibility to discriminate are essential conditions for great art The obsession with innovation the epidemic of newness leads in Greenbergs view to the boringness of so much avant garde art He discusses the interplay of expectation and surprise in aesthetic experience and the exalted consciousness produced by great art Homemade Esthetics allows us particularly in the transcribed seminar sessions never before published to watch the critics mind at work defending and at times reconsidering his theories His views often controversial are the record of a lifetime of looking at and thinking about art as intensely as anyone ever has      Expanded Painting Mark Titmarsh,2017-08-24 The relevance of painting has been questioned many times over the last century by the arrival of photography installation art and digital technologies But rather than accept the death of painting Mark Titmarsh traces a paradoxical interface between this art form and its opposing forces to define a new practice known as expanded painting giving the term historical context theoretical structure and an important place in contemporary practice As the formal boundaries tumble the being of painting expands to become a kind of total art incorporating all other media including sculpture video and performance Painting is considered from three different perspectives ethnology art theory and ontology From an ethnological point of view painting is one of any number of activities that takes place within a culture In art theory terms painting is understood to produce objects of interest for humanities disciplines Yet painting as a medium often challenges both its object and image status expanding and creating hybrid works between painting objects screen media and text Ontologically painting is understood as an object of aesthetic discourse that in turn reflects historical states of being Thus Expanded Painting delivers a new kind of saying a post aesthetic discourse that is attuned to an uncanny tension between the presence and absence of painting      Each One Another Rachel Haidu,2023-07-28 A consideration of how contemporary art can offer a deeper understanding of selfhood With Each One Another Rachel Haidu argues that contemporary art can teach us how to understand ourselves as selves how we come to feel oneness to sense our own interiority and to shift between the roles that connect us to strangers those close to us and past and future generations Haidu looks to intergenerational pairings of artists to consider how three aesthetic vehicles shape in painting characters in film and video and roles in dance allow us to grasp selfhood Better understandings of our selves she argues complement our thinking about identity and subjecthood She shows how Philip Guston s figurative works explore shapes descriptive capacities and their ability to investigate history while Amy Sillman s paintings allow us to rethink expressivity and oneness Analyzing a 2004 video by James Coleman Haidu explores how we enter characters through their interior monologues and she also looks at how a 2011 film by Steve McQueen positions a protagonist s refusal to speak as an argument for our right to silence In addition Haidu examines how Anne Teresa de Keersmaeker s distribution of roles across dancers invites us to appreciate formal structures that separate us from one another while Yvonne Rainer s choreography shows how such formal structures also bring us together Through these examples Each One Another reveals how artworks allow us to understand oneness interiority and how we become fluid agents in the world and it invites us to examine critically and forgivingly our attachments to selfhood      Selection 1966 University of California, Berkeley. Semiotics of Visual Language Fernande Saint-Martin,1990-10-22 the details of Saint Martin s argument contain a wealth of penetrating observations from which anyone with a serious interest in visual communication will profit Journal of Communication Saint Martin elucidates a syntax of visual language that sheds new light on nonverbal language as a form of representation and communication She describes the evolution of this language in the visual arts as well as its multiple uses in contemporary media The result is a completely new approach for scholars and practitioners of the visual arts eager to decode the many forms of visual communication

After Modernist Painting Craig Staff, 2025-01-23 This book presents both a historical survey and a critical re evaluation of the contested and contingent nature of the medium of painting over the last 60 years Offering a critical account of painting specifically rather than art more generally After Modernist Painting provides a timely exploration of what has remained a persistent and protean medium Taking Clement Greenberg's Modernist Painting as its starting point the book focuses on certain developments including the relationship of painting to Conceptual Art and Minimalism the pronouncement of painting's alleged death its response to Installation Art's foregrounding of site how painting both images and imagines the digital and how it continues to embody a particular set of ideas and responses to the world Revised and expanded to reflect developments in the field since the first edition was published in 2013 After Modernist Painting addresses a range of global artists and painting practices from the Dansaekhwa art movement in South Korea to the Conceptualism of Geta Bratescu in 1970s Romania Essential reading for students on fine arts painting courses the book is an invaluable resource for those seeking to understand the themes and issues that have pertained to painting within the context of postmodernism and contemporary artistic practice and also provides a valuable starting point for other more specialized histories of particular painters
