Palumbo,C.W. Sullivan III,2013-01-28 Lois McMaster Bujold has won a shelf full of awards Hugos Nebulas and others for both her science fiction and fantasy writing She is one of the most respected names in the field always delivering polished thoughtful and well crafted writing She consistently addresses great issues and problems on a human level where they are faced by quirky prickly and very real characters and her exploration of the theory of reader response is an important critical contribution Yet there has been a surprising dearth of serious critical writing about her output in part because she resists neat and easy classification by genre politics or subject matter This collection of fresh essays aims to correct that situation by presenting critical insights into many aspects of her writing Attention is given to both her Miles Vorkosigan science fiction series and her Chalion and Sharing Knife fantasy series as well as the books that fall outside these series

Exploring Imaginary Worlds Mark Wolf, 2020-10-08 From The Brothers Karamazov to Star Trek to Twin Peaks this collection explores a variety of different imaginary worlds both historic and contemporary Featuring contributions from an interdisciplinary and international group of scholars each essay looks at a particular imaginary world in depth and world building issues associated with that world Together the essays explore the relationship between the worlds and the media in which they appear as they examine imaginary worlds in literature television film computer games and theatre with many existing across multiple media simultaneously The book argues that the media incarnation of a world affects world structure and poses unique obstacles to the act of world building The worlds discussed include Nazar Barsetshire Skotopogonievsk the Vorkosigan Universe Grover s Corners Gormenghast Collinsport Daventry Dune the Death Gate Cycle universe Twin Peaks and the Star Trek galaxy A follow up to Mark J P Wolf s field defining book Building Imaginary Worlds this collection will be of critical interest to students and scholars of popular culture subcreation studies transmedia studies literature and beyond fiction and others     Disputing the Deluge Darko Suvin, 2021-12-02 Featured on the 2021 Locus Recommended Reading List

For over 50 years Darko Suvin has set the agenda for science fiction studies through his innovative linking of scifi to utopian studies, formalist and leftist critical theory, and his broader engagement with what he terms political epistemology. Disputing the Deluge joins a rapidly growing renewal of critical interest in Suvin's work on scifi and utopianism by bringing together in a single volume 24 of Suvin's most significant interventions in the field from the 21st century, with an Introduction by editor Hugh O'Connell and a new preface by the author. Beginning with writings from the early 2000s that investigate the function of literary genres and reconsider the relationship between science fiction and fantasy, the essays collected here each a brilliant example of engaged thought, highlight the value of scifi for grappling with the key events and transformations of recent years. Suvin's interrogations show how speculative fiction has responded to 9/11, the global war on terror, the 2008 economic collapse, and the rise of conservative populism, along with contemporary critical utopian analyses of the Capitalocene, the climate crisis, COVID-19, and the decline of democracy. By bringing together Suvin's essays all in one place, this collection allows new generations of students and scholars to engage directly with his work and its continuing importance and timeliness.
