Sharing Jesus In The Two Thirds World:

Sharing Jesus in the Two Thirds World Vinay Samuel, Chris Sugden, 1984 Seeking the Asian Face of Jesus Chris Sugden, 1997 Sharing Jesus in the Two Thirds World Vinay Samuel, Chris Sugden, 1983 Theology without Borders Leo D. Lefebure, 2022-06-01 Peter C Phan's contributions to theology and pioneering work on religious pluralism migration and Christian identity have made a global impact on the field The essays in Theology without Borders offer a variety of perspectives across Phan's fundamental work providing an overview for anyone interested in his body of work and its influence Transformation After Lausanne Al Tizon, 2008 Lausanne 74 inspired evangelicals around the world to take seriously the full implications of the Gospel for mission This was especially true of a worldwide network of radical evangelical mission theologians and practitioners whose post Lausanne reflections found harbour in the notion of Mission as Transformation This missiology integrated evangelism and social concern like no other and it lifted up theological voices coming from the Two Thirds World to places of prominence This book documents the definitive gatherings theological tensions and social forces within and without evangelicalism that led up to Mission as Transformation And it does so through a global local grid that points the way toward greater holistic mission in the 21st century BOOK JACKET A Gospel for the Poor David C. Kirkpatrick, 2019-04-11 In 1974 the International Congress on World Evangelization met in Lausanne Switzerland Gathering together nearly 2 500 Protestant evangelical leaders from more than 150 countries and 135 denominations it rivaled Vatican II in terms of its influence But as David C Kirkpatrick argues in A Gospel for the Poor the Lausanne Congress was most influential because for the first time theologians from the Global South gained a place at the table of the world's evangelical leadership bringing their nascent brand of social Christianity with them Leading up to this momentous occasion after World War II there emerged in various parts of the world an embryonic yet discernible progressive coalition of thinkers who were embedded in global evangelical organizations and educational institutions such as the InterVarsity Christian Fellowship the International Fellowship of Evangelical Students and the International Fellowship of Evangelical Mission Theologians Within these groups Latin Americans had an especially strong voice for they had honed their theology as a religious minority having defined it against two perceived ideological excesses Marxist inflected Catholic liberation theology and the conservative political loyalties of the U S Religious Right In this context transnational conversations provoked the rise of progressive evangelical politics the explosion of Christian mission and relief organizations and the infusion of social justice into the very mission of evangelicals around the world and across a broad spectrum of denominations Drawing upon bilingual interviews and archives and personal papers from three continents Kirkpatrick adopts a transnational perspective to tell the story of how a Cold War generation of progressive Latin Americans including seminal figures such as Ecuadorian Ren Padilla and Peruvian Samuel Escobar developed named and exported their version of social Christianity to an evolving coalition of global evangelicals Renewing the Evangelical Mission Richard Lints, 2013-05-26

The culture story of evangelicalism during the second half of the twentieth century has been well told. It is important now to think about the theological mission of the church in an ever increasing post Christian and post partisan context. What is the theologian's calling at the beginning of the third millennium? How do global realities impact the mission of evangelical theology? What sense can be made of the unity of evangelical theology in light of its many diverse voices?

Local Theology for the Global Church Matthew Cook, Rob Haskell, Ruth Julian, 2010-06-01. As the church in the global south continues to grow at a rapid pace, the question of how to develop local theologies becomes more and more urgent. This book charts a path forward through exegetical, theological, and cultural analysis by scholars who are wrestling with the issues in their own situations around the globe. The contents were developed under the auspices of the World Evangelical Alliance Theological Commission at the Oxford contextualization consultation. This book was published in partnership with the World Evangelical Alliance.

Christological Paradigm Shifts in Prophetic Pentecostalism in South Africa Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, Marius Nel, Collium Banda, 2021-09-22. This book explores recent developments in South African Pentecostalism focusing on new prophetic churches. The chapters engage with a number of paradigm shifts in Christology identified as complementing Christ, competing with Christ, removing Christ, and replacing Christ. What are the implications of these shifts? Does it mean that believers no longer believe in Christ but in their leaders? Does it shift believers' faith towards materiality rather than the person of Christ? This volume will be valuable for scholars of African Christianity and in particular those interested in the neo prophetic movement and Christology in a South African context.

Theologia Crucis in Asia A.A. Yewangoe, 2024-08-19. Linking Arms, Linking Lives Ronald J. Sider, John Perkins, F. Albert Tizon, 2008-10-01. Among the various lines drawn between people in the church—male and female, young and old, black and white, rich and poor, Republican and Democrat—there is the line between the urban and the suburban. The stereotypes of the edgy, socially active, multicultural urban Christian and the middle class, comfortable, upwardly mobile suburban Christian mix fact and fiction. Linking Arms, Linking Lives looks beyond stereotypes and makes a compelling case for partnership that crosses urban and suburban for effective ministry among the poor. Drawing from a growing network of development practitioners, pastors, and theologians, this book focuses on the experiences of partnership between urban and suburban entities to provide both theological foundations and practical guidelines for those who desire to partner effectively. All who want to find viable ways to help the poor will welcome this thoughtful and hope-filled book. Includes a Foreword by Noel Castellanos.

Mission and the Coming of God Tim Chester, 2006-10-01. How does the eschatological future impinge on the present? Is the kingdom of God present outside the confession of Christ in movements towards social justice? Is Christian hope a stimulus to social involvement or an alternative? And how does the present impinge on the eschatological future? What is the relationship between our actions now and the new creation Is there eschatological continuity between the two Jürgen Moltmann one of our most influential contemporary theologians has had much to say both on eschatology and its relationship to mission This book explores his thought along with evangelical responses to it Eschatology has been central to evangelical debates about social involvement ever since the Lausanne Congress in 1974 The book examines how evangelicals themselves have related hope and mission The book highlights the important contribution Moltmann has made while offering a critique of his thought from an evangelical perspective In so doing it touches on pertinent issues for evangelical missiology The conclusion takes John Calvin as a starting point proposing an eschatology of the cross which offers a critique of the over realized eschatologies in liberation theology and triumphalistic forms of evangelicalism iThis is a work of major importance engaging with crucial themes and leading Christian thinkers A must read for all reactive evangelicals Tim Chester's work is always good but this is the best yet i Martyn Atkins Principal Cliff College Calver UK Despite the attention of Moltmann and despite intra evangelical debate on the nature of mission over the last three decades the task of bringing Moltmann and evangelicalism into dialogue has remained on the table for some time Tim Chester takes up the agenda His combination of practical experience in mission and theological ability equip him well for this task and the result is a study which brings academic reasoning to bear on Christian thought about eschatology and its vital connection with the missionary responsibility of the church It rewards our careful attention Stephen Williams Professor of Systemic Theology at Union Theological College Belfast iEschatology in relation to mission is often reduced to plans for Oshing's the Great Commission as soon as possible or to lurid end time scenarios that feed our fantasy more than they fuel biblical mission So it is refreshing to have this wide ranging in depth study of the theme that engages with one of the most well known theologians of biblical hope Jürgen Moltmann alongside a number of renowned evangelical scholars yet stays rooted in the text and vision of the Bible itself This is searching theology in the service of biblical mission as all theology ultimately should be Chris Wright International Director Langham Partnership International

Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller, Theo Sundermeier, Stephen B. Bevans, Richard H. Bliese, 2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe's most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword

From Historical to Critical Post-Colonial Theology Robert S Heaney, 2016-05-26 What is post colonial theology How does it relate to theology that emerged in historically colonial situations These are two questions that get to the heart of Robert S Heaney's work as he considers the extent to which theologians predating the emergence of post colonial theology might be considered as precursors to this theological movement Heaney argues that the work of innovative theologians John S Mbiti and Jesse N K Mugambi important in their own right must now also be considered in relation to the continued emergence of post colonial theology When this is done fresh perspectives on both the nature of post colonial theology and contextual theology emerge Through a sympathetic and critical reading of Mbiti and Mugambi Heaney offers a series of constructive moves that counter the ongoing temptation toward acontextualism that continues to haunt theology both in the North and in the South Jesus and the Gospel in Africa Kwame Bediako,2004 Gospel Ferment in Malawi R.

Ross,2018-06-14 This book is a collection of essays written in the early 1990s Some are an attempt to think theologically about the social and political changes and challenges that Malawi was navigating during those years Others are critically reflecting on the nature and content of the Christian faith as it was coming to expression in an African context The essays are a plea for relevancy and contextuality in Christian praxis and theological reflection in Malawi and indeed in Africa as a whole

Gift and Duty Paul H. De Neui,2017-12-21 Is the Christian concept of grace anathema to the social structure of merit making found in Buddhist karmic communities Are all Buddhist forms of merit making purely for religious purposes to assuage cosmic consequences or are there other reasons Are there not Christian churches who operate under a legalistic view of God s divine wrath and are in essence living as karmic communities of the Christian type The result of discussions about these and other questions is the volume you now hold in your hand SEANET proudly presents what is number 14 in its series of missiological reference texts Gift and Duty Where Grace and Merit Meet Each of the ten authors presented here represent a particular perspective both Christian and Buddhist that can inform the other The goal of this volume is to lead to a deeper understanding of the significance of diverse religious and cultural perspectives An Issue of Relevance Grant

LeMarquand,2004 As the center of the Christian world has migrated south especially into Sub Saharan Africa a growing and dynamic African biblical scholarship has emerged Prominent among the texts that have grabbed the interest of African biblical scholars is the gospel story of the woman with the flow of blood Mark 5 25 34 Matthew 9 20 22 Luke 8 43 48 This book compares traditional North Atlantic scholarship on this gospel story with the new insights of African biblical studies in order to test the contention that these two versions of biblical scholarship are substantially different In particular this book argues that scholarships in the North Atlantic and African worlds differ in their conceptions of the goal of exegesis For African scholars practical hermeneutical concerns are considered central to the exegetical task Looking in the Other

Direction Teun van der Leer,2023-09-22 In this study Teun van der Leer tells the story of the Believers Church Tradition a tradition mainly rooted in the so called Radical Reformation which prefers to be called a movement or rather a renewal movement Its name is a program a vision and a way of being church Based on extensive source research this book describes and analyzes the defining characteristics of this so called third type of church and investigates its ecumenical value With an extensive description of its nature of faith the church hermeneutical discernment and mission this book colors a movement within the church landscape that has never been mapped in such detail before As such the book provides an in depth introduction to this ecumenically important but still a bit underexposed movement and makes a substantial contribution to the ecumenical ecclesiological debate about the church and its future
