a n o v e l

"Great
storytelling!
An epic
feminine saga . . .
as enduring as
the pearls her
extraordinary women
pass down through the generations."

Murphy, 2009-07-15 In Ecocritical Explorations Patrick D Murphy explores environmental literature and environmental cultural issues through both theoretical and applied criticism He engages with the concepts of referentiality simplicity the nation state and virtual reality in the first section of the book and then goes on to interrogate these issues in contemporary environmental literature both American and international He concludes his argument with a discussion of the larger frames of family dynamics and natural disasters such as hurricanes and global warming ending with a chapter on the integration of scholarship and pedagogy in the classroom with reference to his own teaching experiences Murphy's study provides a wide ranging discussion of contemporary literature and cultural phenomena through the lens of ecological literary criticism giving attention to both theoretical issues and applied critiques In particular he looks at popular literary genres such as mystery and science fiction as well as actual disasters and disaster scenarios Ecocritical Explorations in Literary and Cultural Studies is a timely contribution to ecological literary criticism and an insightful look into how we represent our relationship with the environment House of Many Gods Kiana

Davenport, 2008-09-30 From Kiana Davenport the bestselling author of Song of the Exile and Shark Dialogues comes another mesmerizing novel about her people and her islands Told in spellbinding and mythic prose House of Many Gods is a deeply complex and provocative love story set against the background of Hawaii and Russia Interwoven throughout with the indelible portrait of a native Hawaiian family struggling against poverty drug wars and the increasing military occupation of their sacred lands Progressing from the 1960s to the turbulent present the novel begins on the island of Oahu and centers on Ana abandoned by her mother as a child Raised by her extended family on the lawless Wai'anae coast west of Honolulu Ana against all odds becomes a physician While tending victims of Hurricane Iniki on the neighboring island of Kauai she meets Nikolai a Russian filmmaker with a violent and tragic past who can confront reality only through his unique prism of lies Yet he is dedicated to recording the ecological horrors in his motherland and across the Pacific As their lives slowly and inextricably intertwine Ana and Nikolai's story becomes an odyssey that spans decades and sweeps the reader from rural Hawaii to the forbidding Arctic wastes of Russia from the poverty stricken Wai'anae coast to the glittering harshness of new Moscow and the haunting faded beauty of St Petersburg With stunning narrative inventiveness Davenport has created a timeless epic of loss and remembrance of the search for family and identity and ultimately of the redemptive power of love

Postcolonial Tourism Anthony Carrigan, 2011-02-01 This book is the first literary study of postcolonial tourism Looking at the cultural and ecological effects of mass tourism development in highly exoticized island states that are still grappling with the legacies of western colonialism Carrigan contends that postcolonial writers not only dramatize the industry's most exploitative operations but also provide blueprints toward sustainable tourism futures By locating this argument in the context of interdisciplinary tourism research the study shows how imaginative literature can extend some of this field's key theoretical concepts while making an important contribution to the interface between postcolonial studies and ecocriticism The book also presents a framework for analyzing how an industry that is subject to constant media attention and involves a huge proportion of the global population shapes the cultural social and environmental milieus of postcolonial texts

Displacing Natives Houston Wood, 1999 Book written from a decolonization perspective of Hawaiian history The work is derived from oral and written Hawaiian language texts by invoking Native representations as alternatives to those constructed by outsiders and settlers      Spiritual Beliefs and Religious Practices of Ancient Hawai'i Kathy L. Callahan Ph.D.,2022-02-02 The focus of this book is the spiritual religious life of the indigenous people of Hawai i the Knaka Maoli Their spiritual principles of mlama ina caring for the environment kuleana individual responsibility kkua helping one another and ohana family beyond blood ties enabled the Hawaiians to survive the decimation of their population and colonial attacks upon their government and cultural heritage Moreover these ideals passed on into the many immigrant groups that came to the Islands and helped them coalesce into one multiracial people The future promise of Hawai i may lie in these ancient principles for they represent a much needed idea of working in harmony with the environment and are characterized by respect tolerance and understanding of differences They may represent a new way of looking at sociocultural processes in the hope of solving complex problems of the modern world This indeed may be the lasting legacy of the Knaka Maoli
