13 Sharks John D. Grainger, 2016-10-14 John D Grainger charts the careers of the thirteen vessels that have served the Royal Navy under the name HMS Shark Despite the ferocious name they have all been relatively small vessels including one brigantine five sloops one Sixth Rate a gunvessel four destroyers and a submarine Collectively they therefore give a good representation of the various roles of these types which receive far less attention than larger more glamorous ships Furthermore as the first entered service in 1699 and the last was sunk in 1944 having the dubious distinction of being the only Allied vessel lost on D Day they illustrate the changes and continuities in the Royal Navy and war at sea across almost 250 years In each case the author considers the origin of the ship the purpose for which it was designed and employed its captains and where possible its crew as well as the activities of the ship itself and its final fate in addition background information of a general nature is included as a necessary context for those actions
