Expanded Visions Arnd Schneider, 2021-06-01 This book argues for a new anthropology of the moving image bringing together an important range of essays on time based media in the contemporary arts and anthropology It builds on recent attempts to develop more experimental formats and engages with debates on epistemologies of ethnography relational aesthetics materiality sensory ethnography and observational and participatory cinema Arnd Schneider critically revisits Baudrillard's idea of the simulacrum and the hyperreal engages with new media theory and elaborates on the potential of the Writing Culture critique for moving image practices bordering art and anthropology This collection of essays is essential reading for anybody working across the fields of visual anthropology film and media studies and visual studies Schneider ambitiously considers the complex relationship between the moving image and anthropology highlighting the potential for innovative approaches experimental methods and expanded perspectives in both fields Sharon Lockhart , Sharon Lockhart Sharon Lockhart, 2012 Published on the occasion of the exhibition Sharon Lockhart Noa Eshkol organized by the Israel Museum and the Los Angeles County Museum of Art Lateness and Longing George Baker, 2023-05-23 How a generation of women artists is transforming photography with analogue techniques Beginning in the 1990s a series of major artists imagined the expansion of photography intensifying its ideas and effects while abandoning many of its former medium constraints Simultaneous with this development in contemporary art however photography was moving toward total digitalization Lateness and Longing presents the first account of a generation of artists focused on the work of Zoe Leonard Tacita Dean Sharon Lockhart and Moyra Davey who have collectively transformed the practice of photography using analogue technologies in a dissident way and radicalizing signifiers of older models of feminist art All these artists have resisted the transition to the digital in their work Instead in what amounts to a series of feminist polemics they return to earlier incomplete or unrealized moments in photography's history gravitating toward the analogue basis of photographic mediums Their work announces that photography has become not obsolete but late opened up by the potentially critical forces of anachronism Through a strategy of return of refusing to let go the work of these artists proposes an afterlife and survival of the photographic in contemporary art a formal lateness wherein photography finds its way forward through resistance to the contemporary itself
