

The background is a dark, textured blue with a mottled pattern. Several stylized flowers are scattered across the image. These flowers are drawn with thin yellow outlines and have yellow centers. The petals are filled with a solid blue color. Some flowers are in the top left, some in the bottom right, and some in the center. The overall aesthetic is elegant and artistic.

Seeing Witness Jane Blocker, 2009 The act of bearing witness can reveal much but what about the figure of the witness itself As contemporary culture is increasingly dominated by surveillance the witness whether artist historian scientist government official or ordinary citizen has become empowered in realms from art to politics In Seeing Witness Jane Blocker challenges the implicit authority of witnessing through the examination of a series of contemporary artworks all of which make the act of witnessing visible open to inspection and critique The Billionaire Alphas Contract Lover Erickson Caesar, 2025-09-02 His hand was wrapped around my throat his thumb swiping across the spot where Roman had a bit down This time his voice was deadly You just had sex with him I felt the blood rush from my face leaving me lightheaded I quickly raised my hand and covered where Roman had kissed No we haven't done anything Do you think I'll believe you He looked at me as if I were a dead person someone who didn't matter who barely existed Yet why did he care if I slept with Roman then My knees trembled but I still forced myself to explain the words tumbling out of my mouth Believe it or not I've never slept with him Griffon gave that sneer of a smile again I'll know for sure after I check He suddenly tore off my dress The day I found out I was dying Alpha Griffon Knight broke up with me Our relationship was a contract but when his true love came back he didn't need me anymore He canceled our contract and told me to get lost I thought that after five years his frozen heart would thaw for me How wrong I was So I packed my things and left Without telling him I only had three months left to live Griffon Knight's private jet landed at the airport at 7 00 p m just as the sun was starting to set vivid orange and red giving way to the bright light of the moon Within a half hour of his arrival he requested that I be brought to his downtown penthouse A Must Read for Billionaire Romance Contemporary Romance Romantic Betrayal Trust Issues Erotic Tension Lovers Book 5 of the series Glossator: Practice and Theory of the Commentary Scott Wilson, Michael Moore, Anna Klosowska, Jordan Kirk, Karmen MacKendrick, Eileen Joy, David Hancock, Gary Shipley, Mathew Abbott, 2011-10-12 Volume 5 of the journal Glossator Contents What Separates the Birth of Twins Jordan Kirk Prosopopeia to Prosopagnosia Dante on Facebook Scott Wilson When You Call My Name Karmen MacKendrick All That Remains Unnoticed I Adore Spencer Reece's Addresses Eileen A Joy Plato's Symposium and Commentary for Love David Hancock Dreaming Death the Onanistic and Self Annihilative Principles of Love in Fernando Pessoa's Book of Disquiet Gary J Shipley On Not Loving Everyone Comments on Jean Luc Nancy's L'amour en clats Shattered Love Mathew Abbott The Grace of Hermeneutics Michael Edward Moore Tearsong Valentine Visconti's Inverted Stoicism Anna Klosowska Lest We Lose Love Scherto Gill, 2023-04-18 Few are aware that since antiquity there has always been the philosophy of love at the core of Western culture It articulates what makes life meaningful and worthwhile and how we can live a good life together through an ethic of love This book fills this significant gap not only reconnecting the reader with such important wisdom and more crucially also reorienting our socio economic institutions and collective actions towards more loving and caring and more concerned with the qualities of our lived experiences By re-discovering the gifts of love we may challenge the existing systemic dehumanisation and draw from knowledge and understanding already present in our culture This is timely because the global crises we are facing are catastrophic especially when it comes to climate change Therefore we must respond from a place of love rather than fear Whether it is reducing the use of fossil fuels lowering greenhouse emission choosing the right food to eat or advocating for structural transformation our concerted endeavours start with an appropriate appreciation of the nature of our well-being which includes the planet's well-being This book highlights a clear pathway forward to ensure collective healing and co-flourishing with nature we must practise the art of loving Country Music Records Tony Russell, Bob Pinson, 2004-10-07

America Literature and Interregnum examines the unraveling of the political forms of modernity through readings of end of millennium literary texts by César Aira, Marcelo Cohen, Sergio Chejfec, Diamela Eltit and Roberto Bolaño. The opening of national spaces to the global capitalist system in the 1980s culminates in the suspension of key principles of modernity, most notably that of political sovereignty. While the neoliberal model subjugates modern forms of social organization and political decision making to an economic rationale, the market is unable to provide a new ordering principle that could fill the empty place formerly occupied by the national figure of the sovereign. The result is a situation that resembles what the Italian political philosopher Antonio Gramsci termed interregnum, an in-between time in which the old order is dying and the new cannot be born. The recoding of history as literary form provides occasions for reconsidering modern conceptualizations of aesthetic experience, mood, temporality, thought, politics, ethical experience, as well as of literature itself as social institution. In his analysis, Patrick Dove seeks to create dialogues between literature and theoretical perspectives including Continental philosophy, political thought, psychoanalysis, and sociology of globalization. The author highlights the connections between mass media, technology, politics, and economics. This is a first-rate, timely and rigorously theorized intervention that everyone in the field of Latin American literary and cultural studies will have to read, teach, discuss, and cite. Charles Hatfield, author of The Limits of Identity: Politics and Poetics in Latin America. Transitioning from literary analysis of Latin American novels to political theory, philosophy, sociology, history, and back, Dove brilliantly performs one of the most difficult tasks of the critic: to think the history of the present. Rather than engaging in blind celebrations of globalization, Dove fearlessly looks straight into the eye of the storm, deploying new vocabularies to help us grasp contemporary precariousness, new forms of violence, and increasing inequality. In so doing, he mounts a bracing critique of the almost comedic way in which our outdated critical weapons keep firing at the wrong targets. A must read for Latin Americanists and comparatists, as well as for scholars interested in putting interdisciplinarity to work. Moira Fradinger, author of Binding Violence: Literary Visions of Political Origins. Forms of Emotion Peta Tait, 2021-11-29. Forms of Emotion analyses how drama, theatre, and contemporary performance present emotion and its human and nonhuman diversity. This book explores the emotions, emotional feelings, mood, and affect which make up a spectrum of emotion to illuminate theatrical knowledge and practice and reflect the distinctions and debates in philosophy, neuroscience, psychology, and other disciplines. This study asserts that specific forms of emotion are intentionally unified in drama, theatre, and performance to convey meaning, counteract separation, and subversively champion emotional freedom. The book progressively shows that the dramatic and theatrical representation of the nonhuman reveals how human dominance is offset by emotional connection with birds, animals, and the natural environment. This book will be of great interest to students and researchers interested in the emotions and affect in dramatic literature, theatre studies, performance studies, psychology, and philosophy, as well as artists working with emotionally expressive performance.
