Coelli, Dodla Sai Prasada Rao, Christopher J. O'Donnell, George Edward Battese,2005-07-22 Softcover version of the second edition Hardcover Incorporates a new author Dr Chris O'Donnell who brings considerable expertise to the project in the area of performance measurement Numerous topics are being added and more applications using real data as well as exercises at the end of the chapters Data sets computer codes and software will be available for download from the web to accompany the volume      Behind the Mule Michael C. Dawson,2020-05-05 Political scientists and social choice theorists often assume that economic diversification within a group produces divergent political beliefs and behaviors Michael Dawson demonstrates however that the growth of a black middle class has left race as the dominant influence on African American politics Why have African Americans remained so united in most of their political attitudes To account for this phenomenon Dawson develops a new theory of group interests that emphasizes perceptions of linked fates and black economic subordination      Sending Money Home Rodolfo O. De la Garza, Briant Lindsay Lowell,2002 For international migrants seeking employment in the United States the desire to remit a portion of their earnings to their home countries is a time honored custom The flow of money southward from the United States has evolved from a stream flowing from families through informal networks to a major river with new tributaries fed by transnational migrant organizations channeled through an increasingly formal marketplace and attracting the involvement of home country governments This volume tracks the evolution of the flow of money home offering new data to enhance the picture and understanding of this important economic phenomenon      Valuing Agroforestry Systems Janaki R.R. Alavalapati, D. Evan Mercer,2006-03-30 The primary objective of this book is to offer practical means for strengthening the economics and policy dimension of the agroforestry discipline This book written by the leading experts in economics and agroforestry encompasses case studies from Australia China Kenya India Indonesia Malawi Mexico Micronesia Tanzania United Kingdom United States Zambia and Zimbabwe The applied economic methodologies encompass a wide variety of case studies including enterprise farm budget models through Faustmann models Policy Analysis Matrix production function approach risk assessment models dynamic programming linear programming meta modeling contingent valuation attribute based choice experiments econometric modeling and institutional economic analysis It is our belief that these methodologies help agroforestry students and professionals conduct rigorous assessment of economic and policy aspects of agroforestry systems and to produce less biased and more credible information Furthermore the economic and policy issues explored in the book profitability environmental benefits risk reduction household constraints rural development and institutional arrangements are central to further agroforestry adoption in both tropical and temperate regions All of the chapters in this volume were subject to rigorous peer review by at least one other contributing author and one external reviewer We would like to acknowledge the indispensable collaboration of those who provided careful external reviews Ken Andrasko Chris Andrew Peter Boxall Norman Breuer Bill Hyde Tom Holmes Sherry Larkin Jagannadharao Matta Venkatrao Nagubadi Roz Naylor Thomas Randolph Gerald Shively Changyou Sun Bo Jellesmark Thorsen and Yaoqi Zhang All reviews were coordinated by the book editors
