Manning, 2015-03-27 Rain Woodrow is an entrepreneur both at heart and by profession She's not afraid to do whatever it takes to make her company a success It's a work ethic that is about to come in handy at home too One night she and her boyfriend Cullen Dangsi notice something remarkable happen At a gathering of their neighbours each stands up and pledges to work towards their highest aspirations and goals There is power in numbers they realise and soon the neighbours are working together for both individual and community objectives This cooperative spirit does not go unnoticed by the media and soon the spotlight of public attention shines brightly on Sunlit

Avenue But that attention comes at a cost It draws focus to those who aren't quite as dedicated to the communal projects as well as those who are jealous of what others are achieving Why can't everyone be supportive of this initiative to make each other's lives better Rain and Cullen work to solve the mystery so that they can achieve their dreams with or without the naysayers The neighbours have a decision to make do they allow themselves to be pulled down by toxic people or do they work even harder to accomplish their goals with renewed ambition Nightmare in Hostage Hills Christina

Mask, 2017-11-20 Sadly Christina's journey and her children's experience of being collateral damage is not atypical Kudos for her strength and bravery in putting her story out there as a cautionary tale for others Dr Susan Weitzman author Not to People like Us Hidden Abuse in Upscale Marriages Christina Mask's Nightmare is constructed around fragments from a life in agony as one woman attempts to escape abuse retain her sanity and regain the custody of three children the family court and her husband have taken from her It's all here the daily records over months then years the diary entries the self-blame the excuses the shame the absurdist dialogues with family therapists marginalia from readings or lectures or religious texts letters pleadings with judges and lawyers and evaluators poems letters to and from the children real and imagined the reports that put her claims of abuse in quotations and so so much more These pieces are loosely joined by a narrative and an interior monologue that I sometimes found too much to bear But then I realized I was scanning something akin to a Picasso painting whose underlying truth lay not in what was on the page not the fragments but in the hope that put them out here no more evident than in the endlessly reasonable letters Mask writes to intractable foes Mask has cast her eye on what Yeats termed the broken crumbling battlement of the self and lived to write it As one director famously said about the sixty women and children crowded into her six bedroom shelter If they can manage this they can manage anything Christina's book gives us faith that she is right Evan Stark PhD MSW The writer is professor emeritus at Rutgers University and author of Coercive Control How Men Entrap Women in Personal Life Oxford 2007 The Secret Life of CeeCee Wilkes Diane
