These men and women find themselves in limbo as they struggle to take care of a family member or friend in the uncertain world of chronic illness The authors explore caregivers experiences as they deal with family conflicts the complexities of the health care system and the impact of their choices on their lives and the lives of others The book includes selections devoted to caregivers of aging parents husbands and wives ill children and relatives lovers and friends A final section is devoted to paid caregivers and their clients Among the conditions that form the background of the selections are dementia HIV AIDS mental illness multiple sclerosis and pediatric cancer Many of the authors are well known poets and writers but others have not been published in mainstream media. They represent a range of cultural backgrounds Although their works approach caregiving in very different ways the authors share a commitment to emotional truth unvarnished by societal ideals of what caregivers should feel and do These stories and poems paint profoundly moving and revealing portraits of family caregivers When Watched Leopoldine Core, 2016-08-09 A National Book Foundation 5 Under 35 Honoree Whiting Award Winner PEN Hemingway Award Finalist Lambda Literary Award Finalist Longlisted for the PEN Robert W Bingham Prize for Debut Fiction The Story Prize Core captures a precious slice of what it is to be human She reaches moments of extraordinary grace The New York Times Book Review Pick up this book and prepare to face sublime recognition Rookie Full of dazzling insight and empathy Refinery 29 Refreshing witty and absolutely close to the heart Core's twenty stories set in and around New York City have an other worldly quality along with a deep seriousness even a moral seriousness What we know of identity is smashed and in its place true individuals emerge each bristling with a unique sexuality a belief system all their own Reminiscent of Jane Bowles William Burroughs and Colette her writing glows with an authenticity that is intoxicating and rare In the Midst of Heroes Kevin A.
