Head Over Heels Martyn de Tours, 2025-08-22 This book of poetry letters and words was influenced by a wide range of interests feelings contradictions attractions sentiments curiosities na vet s fancies and flights of imagination and creativity Most importantly for me at least it alludes to the human condition It is a book that has everything a contemporary poet might rightly detest and even from which they might shy away As a collection of poems it is all over the shop And deliberately so At times it is like a drunken monkey that has been stung by a scorpion Other times it is a calming balsam It is supposed to be different not accidentally diverse It aspires to be delightful and at the same time tries to circumvent the disastrous Some of the pieces are bagatelles Some are free form and some even rhyme Others combine Celtic mysteries from Wales Ireland Scotland Isle of Man China the USA Turkey Switzerland Galicia Asturias Brittany and elsewhere with contemporary frivolity In contrast others talk about magical and mundane events in everyday life There is no central theme other than the colours of saying the games of imagination and the songs without music Lastly I have sought to indulge my ego in writing words that try and avoid the maudlinly romantic the cloyingly sentimental and the depressingly banal I hope that the reader enjoys the mixture that I have prepared and will be delighted by the incongruent tapestry of imagination resonances shapes textures and colours If not Blame me The Lamp ,1904
