Sheer Fluke Richard Wilson:

Richard Wilson Michael Archer, Richard Wilson, Simon Morrissey, Harry Stocks, 2001 Richard Wilson is one of today's foremost exponents of installation art This the first monograph on the artist examines the full spectrum of his work from models drawings and gallery based projects to collaborations with architects and engineers Including more than 50 pieces made over the past 20 years as well as a comprehensive checklist of all his works it provides a long overdue survey of one of the most important artists of modern times Richard Wilson Richard Wilson, Jonathan Watkins, Serpentine Gallery, 1996

Drawing on Art Dalia Judovitz, Marcel Duchamp, 2010 This volume explores the central importance of appropriation collaboration influence and play in French artist Marcel Duchamp's 1887-1968 work and in Dada and Surrealism in general to show how the concept of art itself became the critical fuel and springboard for questioning art's fundamental premises Duchamp was a French artist whose work is most often associated with the Dadaist and Surrealist movements The author maintains that rather than simply negating art Duchamp's readymades Duchamp's readymades are ordinary manufactured objects that the artist selected and modified as an antidote to what he called retinal art and later works including films and conceptual pieces demonstrating the impossibility of defining art in the first place Through his readymades Duchamp explicitly critiqued the commodification of art and inaugurated a profound shift from valuing art for its visual appearance to understanding the significance of its mode of public presentation ABM, 1986 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969-1971 British Art of the Long 1980s Imogen Racz, 2020-11-26 The sculptural history of the long 1980s has been dominated by New British Sculpture and Young British Artists Arguing for a more expansive history of British sculpture and its supporting infrastructures these twenty three vivid and enthralling interviews with artists curators dealers and facilitators working then demonstrate the interconnected networks diversity of ideas and practices energy imagination and determination that transformed British art from being marginal to internationally celebrated With a substantial introduction this timely volume provides valuable new insights into the education work careers studios infrastructures and exhibitions of the artists and facilitators substantially enlarging our understanding of the era

Library, 1992 Peace Projects & Brief Novels, 1986-1988 Eric Mottram, 1989 Tate Modern Artists Simon Morrissey, 2005 Richard Wilson was born in London in 1953 Descended on one side from a line of builders and on the other of artists his work often comes closer to engineering or even architecture than it does to traditional sculpture Typically he transforms the viewer's environment into something unsettling and strange by the interventions he makes whether in the internal space of a gallery the structure of a building or in one of the ships with which he has a particular affinity Perhaps his best known work is 20 50 currently on show at and probably the most popular exhibit in the Saatchi Gallery in London For 20 50 Wilson flooded a gallery space with oil which has a highly reflective surface Into the oil is built a kind of narrow pier or promenade down which one person at a time can walk the oil perilously close to their body So reflective is the oil that the room induces a strong sense of disorientation Further along the River Thames next to the Millennium Dome is another Wilson piece that provides an unexpected sight moving freely through it is both a startling sculptural object in its own right and a comment on the vanished shipping industry that was once a mainstay of the river community In Los Angeles Wilson was inspired by one of the most ubiquitous symbols of Californian life the swimming pool suspending a fibreglass pool shell from a sixty foot long pipe in MOCA's subterranean gallery Deep End In addition to and often in conjunction with these large scale projects Wilson makes films and sculpture takes photographs and stages performance events and has been a formative influence on a generation of British artists This lavishly illustrated career survey includes a new interview with Wilson and examines six key works in depth High Performance, 1985 Trigon 87 Werner Fenz, 1987 New York Magazine, 1969-05-05 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1986 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world's leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals New York Magazine, 1969-09-01 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the
