'Muslim Woman'/Muslim women Patricia Jeffery,Kaveri Qureshi,2024-11-25 This book addresses South Asian Muslim women's lived experiences whilst questioning dominant concepts of agency Negative homogenising constructions of the Muslim Woman are not the result of a knowledge deficit but constitutive of Euro American and Hindu nationalist forms of civilizational self assurance Portraying the richness and diversity of Muslim women's voices and agency cannot therefore rectify discourses casting Muslim women as invisible or silent so long as the vision of agency is shackled to dominant feminist precepts Mindful of this problem the book examines Muslim women's legal agency with respect to the family their claims making upon the state livelihoods and the impact of male outmigration on left behind wives Working across these domains of everyday life contributors highlight how women's vulnerabilities within their families dovetail with oppressions experienced in the local state the labour market and in the streets Women's economic locations continue to shape their agency in crucial ways with upward mobility often entailing greater restrictions on women's mobility and independence yet the chapters caution against romanticising the ironic independence of poverty Collectively this volume showcases Muslim's women's diverse identities and desires that may be sidelined in dominant concepts of agency This book will be beneficial for scholars and students of South Asian Studies interested in gender justice politics and the intersection of religion culture and identity The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Contemporary South Asia
