Roberto,2018-06-13 Community Resources for Older Adults provides comprehensive up to date information on programs services and policies pertaining to older adults Authors Robbyn R Wacker and Karen A Roberto build reader awareness of programs and discuss how to better understand help seeking behavior as well as explain ways to take advantage of the resources available to older adults The substantially revised Fifth Edition includes new topics and updated research tables and figures to help answer key questions about the evolution and utilization of programs for older adults and the challenges that service providers face Long-Term Care: Economic Issues and Policy Solutions Roland Eisen, Frank A.

Sloan,2012-12-06 Ensuring long term care LTC is one of the most urgent problems in health care today Demographic trends are expected to lead to a higher proportion of old and very old people in the global population As a result an increased proportion of global income will be devoted to LTC services With this in mind Long term Care Economic Issues and Policy Solutions aims to address the following important objectives to provide a detailed analysis of the arrangements and institutions designed to protect the disabled and dependent elderly people in various countries and to try to evaluate their respective merits to discuss the projections of future costs of protection for dependent elderly and to assess the impact of improvements in disability free life expectancy on the future cost of care and choices between informal and formal care to present empirical research on these decisions with special consideration of primary caregivers and on the substitution between in kind and cash benefits as well as between institutional or formal care and home or informal care to analyze different theoretical approaches in modeling decisions referring to LTC services to be provided both within and between generations With its mix of empirical theoretical and policy related contributions Long term Care Economic Issues and Policy Solutions will be of interest not only to health economists but also to social scientists health insurers and public policy advocates Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70

National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), Mental Health Consultation in Nursing Homes Michael A. Smyer,Diane Brannon,Margaret D. Cohn,1990-12 The most complete book to date concerning the institutionalized care of the mentally ill elderly A compassionate comprehensive portrayal of the problems of caring for older persons by family members and nursing home staff Essential reading for all those working with the elderly Bertram J Cohler Committee on Human Development University of Chicago The real strength of this book lies in its initial conceptualization of the nursing home as a community with a community s complexity of forces working both for and counter to the best interests of its members contrasting the traditional view that the institution is the enemy of its residents M Powell Lawton Director of Research Philadelphia Geriatric Center This eminently readable book meets a long standing need in the field of mental health reflected in the fact that many nursing home residents suffer mental and emotional problems not infrequently the cause of their placement Rooted solidly in theory research and clinical evidence yet with a clear eye to practical applications this excellent book will appeal to scholars educators students administrators consultants and practitioners Barbara Silverstone Executive Director The Lighthouse This book come out at the right time in our return to a national discussion of the mental health needs of older adults Scholarly in breadth and thoroughness the authors draw on their wealth of practical experience to edify topics on the nursing home industry and its community of caregivers families and residents and on strategies for mental health consultation assessment and intervention It is thoughtfully written Carrell Wendland Ph D President Beverly Foundation

The Coming Health Crisis John R. Wolfe,1993-04 Moreover other traditionally reliable sources of financial assistance Social Security Medicare and Medicaid have faced serious financial difficulties in recent years Who will the aged turn to for assistance The Coming Health Crisis suggests that as funds from all quarters dwindle older Americans will have to look to alternative programs for financial assistance Wolfe urges immediate action to develop new saving programs and increase existing transfer schemes to head off an imminent crisis Although tax increases might provide some resources he demonstrates that it is more important to accumulate capital to create solid reserves for the future Wolfe also explores two roles for government prefunding new or existing social insurance programs and promoting private insurance options

Health Care Financing Review ,1988 Choosing Who's to Live James William Walters,1996 The population is rapidly aging while access to proper and affordable medical treatment is becoming more and more limited This impasse challenges us to make ethical decisions regarding the rationing of health care Arguing that de facto rationing is already taking place due to economic necessity and that proper management of this rationing is essential to the fair and ethical treatment of all seeking care Choosing Who s to Live directly addresses one of the most challenging moral questions of our day Appearing in the wake of increasing awareness of health care reform this volume identifies four compelling arguments for managed health care rationing the number of citizens over age eighty five will increase 500 percent by the year 2040 current baby boomers could live longer than today s elderly by seven to fifteen years new medical technologies are appearing every day and the ratio of workers to retirees will be 1 4 in forty years instead of the current 1 2 5 In this volume six leading scholars take the discussion of rationing health care beyond the simple idea of withholding government funded live saving treatment from the very old to a more ethical effective treatment plan for all
